Intermezzo

In the beginning there was nothing and nothing is in the present day; the material that you experience means nothing and attachments are lost. The dream of life experience represents a program of normality, a reflection of mixed emotions, a representation of a character in the dream of life experience, the combination between the normal rate perception and the mediocre rate perception. The mediocre rate perception needs proof and understanding of what is happening. Humans need the mediocre rate perception for entertainment and for seeing beauty in the material as a part of the normality of the program. To achieve experience with emotional feedback we need mediocrity from the mediocre rate perception. We need proof of existence and instructions for life from our normal rate perception which is aware of the situation and knows what is good for us to exist in an experience program like the dream of life. We have one time on this experience which is taken place on planet Earth and we have to make it the normal expression of each individual and we need instruction for life. We have to represent our true self and to express that creativity and the originality of each individual, the awareness of who we are in a material form for experience. There is no I and there is no destiny and no purpose of existence, nothing to find and no floating soul is attached to a material body and nothing that is lost and found. You can do whatever is necessary for you in the dream of life experience.

I know that the dream of life experience seems small compared with the infinite Universe, but this is a part of the normality of the program that we live. The program is created from different experiences and we created the power which made us powerless. We have millions of connections mental and physical with millions of impulses in the experience that modify perception in real time. Our brain is connected with the infinite source of the dream of life experience. It transcends our mediocre rate perception and our perception moment by moment thru time and space. Going deeper in the material the brain is a replication of the infinite Universe in a smaller scale, a device that controls everything individual. The experience is taking place in the center of the Universe and we can be big or small, we can lift or can get down and we can create and see anything. We are a high-performance machine for materializing or seeing what is supposed to see projected from the emotional and belief system. Our eyes can see representation from our true sense in real manifestation in the dream of life experience. We can limit or non-limit and become what is a part of the normality of the program, a supreme manifestation or a disaster. We can attain our peace of mind from the thought that we are creators and we have everything, we are infinite and we have modified fire.

We are in the center of the Universe and our brain is a replication of the same Universe with the same knowledge and we bring it with us every moment. The power is activated by intention. Where can we get our energy to do whatever we want to do and to fire up the motors? How we can simulate in our mind our perfect Universe and project the scene by our eyes in the same time and space? Does this happen by thought or it is much more than this? I believe that all complex projects have the start in simple ideas that everybody can conceive. I believe that truth lies in front of us in the mirror and in our eyes without focusing on the body. The eyes are the telescope of the Universe and I see thru them and I see thru the Universe thru space and time. This is fact and it is right here. What special time and space we are living? I believe we chose this. The dream of life is a creation of our infinite power. We create and play our movie and we are our production team and characters. All is me and all is light and all are stars. The dream of life experience is taking place on planet Earth and is a part of the normality of the experience. What is this planet so special in this time and space? What has to offer? What can we don't see or ... don't want? We project our daily reality, but what time and space means and what is tomorrow? What is our true purpose? Focus on the truth and the Universe reveals. We materialize most of what we believe, feel and do. The triangle reveals what we want to create in front of us in this time and space by projecting that mixed emotions and beliefs. You already chose the best dream of life that could possible experience, but you don't recognize the path, because you experienced a distracted dream. Nothing is important and nothing means something unless we give a positive value in the dream of life experience.

I gave life sense and meaning. With patience and persistence, my answers to all universal questions are here. The understanding of living man as a function in an experience called "THE DREAM OF LIFE EXPERIENCE" and the understanding of life as a dream experience. The knowledge to translate information from a belief system attached with feedback to an emotional system into a mechanism of life awareness. The knowledge of what is happening and what is understand. The connection between thought, emotion and belief is more present than ever before. The energy of life is revealed. All the truth that is omnipresent. The nonsense religion and the way planet Earth is constructed as an experience of domination and non-liberation. The only one responsible for this disaster is perception. Perception can free, but perception can close.

We are born alone, we live alone and we die alone. A big part of the dream of life experience we are alone and we live among strangers and we try to see them as somebody dear and we put our faith in them and then when they go away we remain empty and a little sad. Material things are an illusion and the feelings are forever and it's this just the purpose of life? The touch of material things that we call them "empty holes" and we tend to run after them until we remain without any energy left and then we get bored. What is the purpose? I believe that what is left behind us is a better world and we have to be grateful and proud of what we had accomplished changing the world within us and written our name in stone. It is the only truth that I can see and believe and worth living for in the dream of life experience. Until the end of the dream of life experience negative emotions like greed, obsessions, non-patience, non-confidence, non-trust, non-awareness will exist as a part of the normality of the program. You can be addicted to the dark side and the heart will die. You lose your dreams and you become a material stone in the dream of life experience. The negative output that you experience may be the cause of the man in the mirror. Patience and persistence are the gift you possess from day zero.

Dear Ali, welcome to the Alspel. A lot of nights I have waited for this moment to come. There is no limitation and I finally understood and accepted this process. I learned and achieved and my perception and beliefs are prepared for the dream of life experience. The Alspel is ready to be thrown in the world for maximum potential. This program will make a big difference in the dream of life experience and I hope you will understand all now. Believe that your plans will be taken in consideration by the normal rate perception, because experience is the one that remains and matters. I hope your bridge between the mediocre rate perception and the normal rate perception will resist your temptations and distractions for you to become what is necessary. This is your instruction for life. Hello me, hello connection.

Testimony of ALI

The BBAIIC ALSPEL is constructed by author Alex Cojocaru (ALI). Second act of the first published program ABOVE & BEYOND I'M JESUS which was a demo for completing the 22 ALSPEL. It was the starting point for creating the original expression of the author, the original part that the author has to offer to the world and also what he may call "The Dream of Life Experience". The BBAIIC ALSPEL is designed to rethink mentality, achieve best reflection and to know who you are as a material expression in the dream of life experience. It is supposed to give you instruction for life so you can be aware of the purpose of existence and what is happening." Alex Cojocaru was born on 22 January 1993 and grew up in Dragasani south Ramnicu Valcea, Romania.

"Above & Beyond I'm Jesus it's a demo program, because I felt that I didn't had the time and the information necessarily to accomplish a more complex truth revealing program like the 22 ALSPEL so I had to come with something fast and clear presented as a demo."

"I am a universal presence and in the dream of life experience you know me as Ali or Alex Cojocaru, an identification name. I have a numerical code attached to my birth date and place and I am material controlled by me"

"I knew from day one that this world had a different meaning. I always view things differently and I started to find my own answers."

"I want to chase the feelings of the experience and I want to see how things feel in the present no matter what others say. I am experience addicted and I know how to recognize the red flags that can help me to unfold my dream of life experience. I control my mind and I disrupt-sustain-attain the dream of life experience. I didn't think I could feel more broke, but Dragasani made me do it so do it from where you are with what you have. Who am I and why material things made me do it? I am trying to see, but I am blocked in a box and I am breathing slowly and I can't see the beauty of things,"

“I believe that you have to be focused on something. You don’t have to say thank you and it is enough to feel happy or to have the feeling of being grateful. Learn to follow and use your emotions rather than your thoughts. Learn to control the emotional feedback in the visualization, but also in the circumstances from day to day. Thinking big and having a higher vision you can materialize this visualization in your reality in the present moment. Having all the time my mediocre rate perception connected with the normal rate perception helped me to see beyond my human intelligence and to find my self-confidence and to go forward. Having all the time this life couch I managed to overtake my limits and to expand my mind and to lift my emotions frequencies and I am very grateful for this. This mentality made me create a high performance proximity sensor for ultimate guidance and I was sculpted by obsessions. To be grateful requires a lot of awaking and you can’t be grateful overnight. It is attached on humble and humble requires opposite emotion to achieve. To live in the present requires awareness of who you are.

“We are the same and we remain the same in different times and sometimes we move in circles in different circumstances. Ask yourself the same question with different voice in search for answers in the same game. “What is my purpose? Who I am? Why I am here and experience this?” “Why we have to work? What is the meaning of working? Are we here for being slaves or we are here because our power to have it all, relax and live”. The fear is normal in the evolution of humanity. We have to do it alone without help and to put our hope in our emotional system. That is how big things are happen and big it’s just a perception. The dream of life experience is a better place for us, because of our focusing on the emotional system.”

“I run so much over things and in the end I didn’t want them and didn’t appear in my reality. I give up on this insane dream and nothing from here matters. It is all a big lie, a big illusion and the human is in control of what he sees. In the end only what we experience remain and the emotions that come with it. The feeling is the most important and I give up because it doesn’t go anywhere. I try to love all, but the illusion of money and all the distractions bring me down. I am slipping and I can’t get up. I need divine assistance and I want to think that I have an S.O.S button, but I don’t know how to press it and I don’t know how to connect with the divine. I know that I have that connection with my inner-self and I am confident. The material world is catching me and I want to let go, but my obsessions are burning me. Help me, I’m dying of thirst.”

ALIMATIC

Hello God, remember me? I am still the man who tried to change the world by your means and intention. Do you remember me? I changed a lot based on the first Above and Beyond project, but this is me, the old me and I made it. I accomplished what you asked me to and I am the best reflection of myself and I feel you know this like never before. I feel that I changed position with you, because I feel like you. This process really worked; look at me now after all this struggle. Do you believe it? I sure believe in me now. Still was really hard and I struggle with me. The devils from my head took a party and made me obsessive and in love with possessions; still I made it. I am in the present now, prepared. I see you I really care for me, but still devils are everyone. Help me, give me your hand and strike with your these demons with your light. They are running in my head playing with my thoughts and my belief system. They don't want to go away. I remember time when I speak to you a lot of my dreams trying to figure it all out and see what is good. I believe we've received our life on what we did on the last experience and I believe we receive our destiny and thoughts not because of a supreme manifestation, but a boomerang effect. What you give you will receive back with the same amount of intensity. I believe that the dream of life experience is a dream and the reality is simulated by our system and the world that we see is based on what we did in the last experience. “

Life is all a dream, an expression of our feelings and nothing is real. We live in our dream of life experience. Elsewhere why I am here? Why I see what I see? Why is this world like this and why it can't be better? What is money? I was learned that the Universe is abundant and is all love. Where is that love? I feel a lot of struggle everyday even if I have it all. There is something that always reveal to me that is not ok and it hurts a lot .Why it has to hurt like this? Why I have to change the world? Why is the world like this if we are intelligent and supreme beings? I simply don't understand. I am a living memory? Is a forgotten world? Why we have to be attached by things, people, emotions and thoughts? I don't feel love and don't know what it is. I am still searching it. But this world is so cold hearted. Please give me time because I came from nothing and I am searching for my broken pieces.

I used to have thoughts about all this process of projections and if it's a destiny out there and that somehow it is written in the stars, but now I realize that in a world of distractions your eyes see what you feel. We chose to be here in this time and space to experience and we put red flags in order to remember who we are and for what we are here. I guess humans forgot what they came for and that is to find who they are, experience and help people elevate to the next process of experience. We forgot this part, because when we materialize in this physical body we forget why we are here and this is a part of the normality of the experience so we can have access to this precious information that we forgot and to expand our mediocre rate perception beyond ordinary. Healthy lifestyle—raw diet is required for maintaining in flawless parameters, but visualization, a good heart and knowing the truth can do the job done. Visualizing keeps the brain in full potential, emotional system is working fine if you accept yourself the way you are. We arrive at our believe system and here is a bit tricky, because from where we are we believe what our mediocre rate perception can see both good and bad and take it as a proof, but you have to take full control over it and terminate the mediocre rate perception. You can chase the feeling that you had when you were younger and this is a very good thing to follow. That is the signal that says you are who you are, because when you are younger you are full of energy and we just want to play and share. We stay in the moment and don't think of anything or anyone. Follow your childhood and you will know what to do.

I miss the good old days when I was nobody on a field, just me and my normal rate perception. I feel super different, my body and heart are light and a state of relaxation is present. I miss Ali and the interludes that I had with my personal mind saying that everything will be ok that it is just a scratch and nothing is wrong. Many up and downs in my heart, a lot of white nights and I don't want to be the same again. It is a normal period, a period of change and I accept it. Everything has a limit and nothing is forever. I try to keep the feeling burning in my chest and take it with me all my life. Compared to my successes there are few mistakes and I count them on my fingers but, without them I wouldn't know how to achieve my goals.

Who am I and who are this mediocre people unaware of what is happening and what they've done wrong to be like this? It is desire to experience or they just done wrong in the past and who exactly are this people and what is life all about? What is this world and who created this? I believe that our mind and it's just a dream in a reality projection of our desires. Is this all that exists and matters?

The life has no meaning and shall end now, but what is behind the stage of life? What can't we see? What is real? Why we are running and where are we going? Who are you and who am I? What happened to this world and where did it come from? I believe that is all an illusion and is nothing strange or different about it. Is this world full of love or hell in disguise? For what are we begging for? When did we go wrong? I have a weird feeling, because of the 101 meditation that say a lot to me. I believe that I am on a mission and I feel assisted somehow. The same world is no more accepted and has nothing to offer and don't come in the same amount for everybody. We are here to experience not to search. We need a reasonable confidence between 70 to 101 percent. The belief system is the last key to access freedom and happiness after sadness. You can control the world thru principle of function. The world is based on parameters which are fixed and limited, but the mind is flexible and can modify the perception of the world so the rules as well. The change must be done from the interior. The negative stimulates you to change and to search for answers. There is no God and we have the power, we have to take risks and we can't lose. Actions are first and success is guaranteed.

Something is changing the structure of a belief system when something new appears in the mind. The mind accepts new parameters that modify the perception. The perception slows down to change a belief in the belief system and indirect in our reality. It is now here, because is meant to be this way over and over again. It is real? No. What it is? Time perception is changing and we can't stop it this way. We could modify our belief system in order to see different reality here and now in the past, present and future. Who we are and what we want? We want love or destruction of a reality. To live forever like a creator is not possible and no permanent parameter should stay long in the belief system for security reasons. Who am I? All that I am is near my present. Why I have to experience this projection in real time? It is design to work this way from the beginning of time and that is a fixed parameter in the dream of life experience. Junk and lost energy visualizing and self-born from nothing. What about confidence? Your mind "downloads" all the information right now for you have the ability to recover the memory for salvation and that is also a parameter in the dream of life experience. We are programed sentinels with flesh unaware of the capacity to control the machine that we use to experience; the human body. The salvation of humans is necessarily, because they have strong negative memory infected. It is all a lie and it should end right now. My perception is this way. My path is gone in another direction parallel with love and fear. Fear and love are self-programed to save a lost memory.

Why is this world like this? Why we don't focus on the planet and take off of it? Why is supposed to be this way? The world could be real good without companies that are selling your soul. Desires are omnipresent emotions and are active now, but the will is a demon that is not required for the nature of human. It is important to travel to expand our belief system and the emotion that comes with it. Daily dreaming is good for you and keeps you in a protective environment in this world. Being creative is a protection status and health is direct proportional with the awareness of who you are.

The dream of life is a weird experience and people are not living, they are falling. They don't deserve the condition of the dream of life experience. The ego is loaded with distractions and this can't be life; illness is omnipresent. I hope that somebody or something will fire the light so the illumination can arrive and destroy this evil spirit called ego that is deceiving people from the earth. Who is this demon that holds me down and don't want to see the light. Humans are not free from their minds and what humans do is mediocre. All the things and emotions that we access and experience are fake and don't serve us in any evolution. The nature of the human experience in the dream of life experience has nothing to do with evolution and it's a mediocre experience with mixed feedback. Without any awareness of the mind and body we do mediocre things like singing and writing and mathematical equation. We are so alone and we give values to this mediocre creation. We tend to blame a creator for anything and we seek material more often than breathing. We can't be anything more than normal, more than human and this is mediocre. The experience is mediocre and it's a part of the normality of the dream of life experience. We applause people that are presented that do certain things well and value them bigger. With mediocrity comes greed and control and that is also a part of the normality of the program. The dream of life experience is made from negative emotions that are combined with positive emotions. There are millions of explosions of emotions per second in one the human body. This is a courageous combination for somebody to feel. In conclusion let's accept our mediocrity and let's accept our nature of humans. We aren't here to experience divine power; we are here to experience a mediocre experience with a lot of feedback.

What would you do if today is your last day in the dream of life experience? How do you free yourself and what is the one thing that you can do in the last 24 hours? You can do what you like and stay in comfort and consume your last shot in the comfort zone or you can do something that you don't like to do or something that you don't like to achieve. Doing what you don't want makes the time go slower and the 24 hour parameter is changed, because you change it. Doing what you don't like gives you difference between good and bad. Go off your comfort zone, sleep when you don't want to sleep, eat something that you don't like and take the opposite direction. You never know what you may see changing a parameter in the dream of life experience.

If you were with at least 100 years in the future how would you feel? What do you see, how do you see and how do you think? This mentality has to be applied in the present. Health is stable, stress doesn't exist and it's illegal. Smart watches can see the activity of the heart and the cause of incorrect feedback from the human body and they keep you in touch with this level. Once the level reaches a danger mood your personal doctor is warned that something is wrong and contacts you immediately. A lot of constructions are of glass and everything is white or transparent blue. All system is based on codes that are printed on the special watches. You can do anything with your watch and no smartphones is required. Cars can levitate and move without any limitation with a system that is based on magnets and energy is finally free. A system that makes planet Earth connected free exists and combines land and sky.

After days and nights of obsession I realize that truth and happiness was already inside me and that nothing from my dream experience was not outside me. It was all a dream and it was a mind fault and after a few materialized dreams with this attraction process I realized that that false feeling of accomplishment is just an illusion for the mediocre rate perception and that the most important things for you to ask is confidence and a big respect for who you are. This always went good and it forced me out of stagnation, inactivity and the fact that I sleep often on me and woke me up suddenly to reality, giving me a new lease on life and the energy for materialization and vitality for a good health. I always felt special without any reason at all. I felt perfect and I wanted to be perfect, because I had this obsession about it, but with this comes a big instability to support. I asked other people if they feel special like me, but they were lost in the abyss assisted by demons. I felt connected with all that it was around me and I didn't understand why. What is so special inside me? Who I am and from where I come? Why do I see what I see? Most of the time I felt perfect inside me, but also outside and I know the secrets of the Universe and I feel indestructible, but with all this power comes responsibilities. Because of this I feel very emotional unstable. I believe that perfection has something to do with the emotional system. I believe that is connected and they can't coexist one without the other. Perfection is made from clean emotions. The one who has them becomes perfect, but instability exists and on every corner may sit an owl and not a dove. The dove is the sign that represents me. The sign that always watched me as a child engraved in the building that I used to grow. I don't know why, but it was engraved near my balcony a picture with a dove maybe by a worker with a creative mind and maybe he did do this in hope that the dove will bless the building or maybe it was just for me. A red flag put there before materialization in a small town from south Romania. I am aware that I chose to make my childhood in Dragasani, my dream city. A place that didn't say that much for people from province that goes though the city without giving that much of importance, but for me it was everything and I didn't need anything. Childhood was the best time of my life, going out behind the block and to me it was Heaven on Earth and all my friends from around the block had origin from engineer parents. An immense happiness radiate to me while I was playing outside. It was something special in the air and I was breathing energy or something different from the air, something like a dream and a higher state so powerful than even now when I write I feel butterflies. This state of dream has followed me in the dream of life experience wherever I went and whatever I did. The dream state kept me away from dark and demons and showed me everything that is beautiful and kept me close to the light. I am grateful for my childhood and also for my adolescence period and for all the blessings in disguise, the mood and the health. I stretched a long way until something disconnected me from the light, maybe just the fact that I was growing up or something that distracted me completely. Maybe it was all the bling-bling, all the social media and in general, the lifestyle of a mature kid with a car in front of the block and with money in the pocket. My mediocre rate perception was taking me along with all the distraction and that is a dangerous. This always comes like a car with the headlights turned off and can attack brutally without mercy pulling yourself into total darkness, stealing your identity and just like that my source to light has not been possible and for a long period of time I lost my vitality, my personality and my energy. I struggled a lot in search of truth and to find solutions, but nothing was the same. A lot had changed and I disconnected myself from this truth. Everything was false and ugly just like in a horror movie, but also very real. I never encounter nothing like those bad feeling and I didn't know how to control them. My feelings were stolen and I was empty with no connection and nobody to help me get over it. I ran after things and the dream of life experience has such an irony that in the end I didn't really wanted and didn't materialize. I gave up on this crazy dream, because nothing of all this matters and is all a great illusion. The human controls everything that he sees and finally the experience and feelings matters.

I believe that the light has a special meaning and when you are who you are you are light, you know the truth and you know who you are and who you have to become and you are in a state of awareness. Money and success transform you in a machine that only feeds the mediocre rate perception and they don't give you real satisfaction at all. We are not supposed to be successful and we are here to experience. We are here to breathe and to believe, create and have self-security. I wonder what higher beings thoughts and feelings are and what they can discuss. Let's say they stay at a table and discuss illumination and I wonder how they feel. Light is a demonstration of the material and we live in our conscience. This is the dark side that we can't see and it's supposed to be like this. We are not here for money and fame and still distractions are omnipresent. This can't be life or maybe we want to find who we are. Sometimes is hard to get away from distractions even if you know the truth about this world. "What are we supposed to do here? Just breathe? Suffer? Stay? Have money and fame? Love and be broke? Just for experience? Live one breath at a time one foot at a time and day by day? To run all the time for money and material things and to limit yourself doesn't worth it anymore. The dream of life experience is more than this. We are more than humans which makes us a part of the normality. Why you should follow the crowd and don't follow your bliss. Material things get you false joy for limited time. Chasing this happiness is not an intelligent path and no evolution should come like this. The dream of life experience is beautiful and is meant to be abundant. Accept everything and be at peace with heart. Study love, learn to run, heal and feel the breeze. What a joy and I simply love the dream of life experience and I hope that one day you will reach the same happiness to shift your destiny. Live life, be a hero and join eternity. Angeles applause walking on a red carpet and in front I see clouds after this long journey to find my way and I will see my dream come true. This was a revelation vision.

Leaving is hard, very hard....trust me; it is really bad. You feel a dark emotion in the cross intersection and sometimes feelings from hell are forcing my nature. Burning chest and zero confidence lies on me like a hot wind in the summer. It always shakes me like no other experience, like no other material and it don't go until you pray to go. In the end is worse staying than leaving. I am talking to God right now and he knows that I've tried by best; I tried everything that I could possible do as a human. I am satisfied with me and I feel pure, I feel save, I feel alive. I know that he is trying to save me from this horrible demon that I put my self-confidence in. The demon betrayed me and left me in a freezing-point. I did it again 3 times in a row, the same mistake. I feel that freedom is not that easy to achieve. Right now my confidence comes from the belief that it "can't get worse than this". Right now I don't feel hope, I don't care who is passing me by and in this moment I feel nothing.

I cry, I get angry, I love and I have mercy. I am detached and I feel a cold wind blowing on my forehead and I am in peace with myself like a cold river. I am feeling empty, but with a red heart in the Christmas Eve I feel relaxed and without any pen to express this emotion I love life cause materials are just an illusion. We have a heart so we have to use it, because nobody is responsible for our own wind in the dream of life experience. Connection and light is everywhere, but in order to see it you have to make it thru the storm and find your answers in the dark sea. What you speak is controlling your world.

The world is frozen underwater and we leave it this way waiting for somebody to reach for us, but we are doing nothing just sleeping and being unaware of what is happening. The projection or what we see is false. We create what we see and feel and we are extension of our perception. We are here, because we want to feel and perceive what means to feel. We control the body thru a wireless experience and we are not here. Here is a map in order to experience a reality projection. Why don't we are aware of what is happening and what is the connection between mind and body? Connection is lost, but why? I believe that it's meant to be this way in order to be hard for us to see and to be much more real and palpable. In conclusion nothing is important and you have to create your own world and you have to keep it simple without losing yourself. Be specific and go after it, plan and believe.

I can control you however I want and you can't do anything about it. I can make you believe that everything is alright and work well. I give the exact hour exactly how I want to and I do whatever I want with you and your life. You said that I am below you, but who are you exactly? You strongly believe that you are the storm, but I am the weather man. You don't know what you talking about and you behave like a demon, but don't forget that I give you this impression and you are small and you are nothing. When comes to distractions or anything that is negative you are present and you like it this way. Don't forget that I created you and I can change you however I want. Don't be sure on your powers, because you will cry like a child. You just can't understand and you don't like the idea that darkness can't stay far away from light. I let you play and you feel strong, but I control you emotions and I can control your life. You think you can do whatever you want to, but you are controlled. I just push a button and you die. You become a consumable product in an experience of consume and you know very well what I am talking about. I am training myself, I am training my mind, I learn things and analyze your behavior when you have power and I return on my feelings. I don't feel anything for you and it's all a test and when you will get hit you will get ugly with no powers of restoration. You are not a phoenix and you are nothing without my power and you are just for consumption. You can take a shot for me, because you don't know to appreciate your precious time and it's normal for you that you can't see the light that shines within me, because you are in your blind darkness. You are lost and you think that you know everything, but only your negative beliefs make you believe this. It seems like I had to do with a demon that chose the light, but he lost himself in the abyss. Light is not an easy job and it's not for everybody and there aren't a lot of people that get to the end of the tunnel just to see the light. When you believe that you won...remember me.

When will you understand that all this distractions don't get to anywhere? When you will understand that the devil is present in all this distractions and doesn't let you see the reality, doesn't let you see what is life and how is constructed. All this distractions have no purpose and no real actions and you can't see how you are moving and how you are thinking. You can't see what is important, what matters and you can't appreciate the experience. This is what demons do; it destroys you with short pleasures and many have fallen into this trap. There are a few people that can see the light in all this darkness. Do you know what I realized tonight? I realized that you represent nothing and you are nobody; a failed product of the society that we live in and you don't know what you talking about. I suppose you don't know what solitude is and how beautiful can be to ask yourself a lot of things, to dream a lot and to find some real answers and a meaning in who you are, rather than all this distractions that you are talking about all day. You believe deep in your heart that I am envious, but I don't have any clue about what you are talking about. You don't know the meaning of nothing and you are lost and I hope you will continue to be like this, to misinform people and to have some fun among your thieves and your demons. Once again you have been neutralized

I understand that things don't go as they used to and that everything that you represented to me is gone. It seems that you were a demon exactly as I felt from the beginning and so many things said this, but you had your part of filling the human with false positive emotions just to seduce them. You know this art very well and you have the impression that you know everything, but your little vast experience is representing you. You failed on a ship that was destined to perdition and you like to fool yourself. I told you these things, but you were sure about your small personality and you even tried to show people that you are intelligent, but you are not. You didn't listen to me and you didn't want to understand each other and to walk the path in peace and harmony. You came to me like the wind, you and your mediocre principles to show me your dream to conquer the kingdom of the sky. I told you that "I am the truth" and "I know all that it" and "I know all that existed" and I told you it will not work with me this way. You didn't take things seriously and you were on another movie with different plans. You wanted to change me, but it didn't work. I understand that is hard to deal with the master, a lot of demons had tried, but failed miserably and you thought that with low experience you can access my belief system and play with it how you want to. Your passive behavior tells a lot about you. You talk a lot and you do nothing and your words don't make good house with your actions. You are free and out of the equation and I give you now full permission to go away and intoxicate your thoughts alone. I hope you will think of me when you are on the beach and believe that you were naive and don't forget that you had luck in your low life and the rough diamond slipped through your fingers, but you didn't know this because you don't know how to recognize something so beautiful. Goodbye beast, take care, I destroyed you for eternity and you will no longer intoxicate people with negative beliefs. Before you started your harmful way you had to know that things done in the dark can't stay away from the light; you are neutralized with acid.

I guess the time has paid off finally and it's December. Love the smell of success in the afternoon. But the war is still running and maybe I won a little battle. Demons visit me sometimes and give me negative emotions to feel, but I have light and I don't embrace them. Morning dreams with saints woke me up. Thoughts in my mind remain after, thinking about them and trying to figure it all and then it hit me with this thought "devils betrayed you".

They promise you this lifestyle and then give you obsessions. Ironically in the end I didn't want all of this bling-bling and it was just a dream, but it felt so real. Emotional scratches remain here and I don't understand clearly this process. Why I have to deal with such emotional lightning that demolish me so bad in order to reconstruct from the bottom again and again. I didn't have no knowledge, no information. It was me, God and this machine that helped me search information. Some sort of keyboard with letters and a screen all connected. That is how it started with my decision and my intention. Where did I get that energy from? Well, heartbreaks of course. I said that I am so unstable when it comes to emotional lightning.

Life is an act of courage and intelligence and who created this projection of this world is very creative and very smart. We live in a Universe that is stamped by numbers and I believe that right now is necessary to start a new year, because the world that is manifested in the present moment, can't survive any longer in this conditions. The Universe wasn't created by a big bang and doesn't have no starting point and no end point; all that exists is here. The universe was put here just the way it is to have a meaning and to experience a new way of consumer program based on mediocrity. By thinking with the mediocre rate perception that the Universe was invented by someone and somehow you access the material intelligence which leads you to mediocrity. The thinking is wrong and it has to be simpler than all this questions and answers. I believe that the phenomenon that accepts the simple explications to be realist and near perfection and truth is more supreme than the mediocre rate perception. I know that the experience is created by a unity, but the unity is very intelligent to be capable to create such a program based on mediocrity and normality. I believe this construction is the bigger and intelligent manifested material ever existed. This is the only proof of intelligence I can see in the Universe. You will see in the Alspel that I accomplished all the universal questions and I created for people from planet Earth the necessary instructions for life. It is important to know who you are and what you are and what is happening and to possess the necessary instructions for life, but in the end we are a simple representations of a physical body that is meant to experience the dream of life. We are born naked and we die naked, naked in our manifested expression and also naked in our thoughts, emotions and belief. The dream of life experience has a lot to offer when it comes to material experiences and it is good to have strong values and to maintain them, but in the end you are who you are and this is the ultimate success and the ultimate abundance. It is not necessary for everybody to have instructions for life and to experience all that is flashy, because this is not the purpose and we don't have to achieve a situation that we consider that is good or necessary; the purpose is to be yourself and to be happy with who you are from where you are and to be aware of what you can do in the dream of life experience for your own happiness and experience.

Door 7 in Alma

Zero confidence with zero dreams and no commitment. A long journey is waiting for me to pack my thoughts and go. Thinking about beginning this process and I have some information about attraction and what I want to materialize, but I feel is more than this so I have to study more and learn more about life and attraction. Getting in touch with some popular books of self-confidence and I found my starter pack. I have little information to walk forward and some life advices. Found a lot of information about this regular meditation that you have to stay with the hands on your knees, but I feel a lot of resistance, because is something strange for me and I am not connected. So I remember that water helps me when I have something on my mind and it keeps recalibrating my thoughts. Why not make this meditation with my legs in water and make my own version of it. I know that I have to push forward, because is hard to get in touch with this myself. Thoughts are racing in my mind when I do this and I can't focus on nothing. Most of the time I meditate and I think about what I want to materialize and who I want to become. I like when I do it, because it makes me feel something. Days are passing by and I still feel a lot of resistance and I have a lot of weight on me. Feeling down, but in this period of time for some reason I have a strong willpower to go and to push it hard. I stay a lot of the time around me and I still want to do this, but sometimes it feels so hard to do this. My mind is racing so fast and I am trying to get in touch with me and be stable once and for all, but it seems like the way I am growing up I understand that you can't achieve a stable state, you can't get a comfort zone and life is not meant to be this way, but still in this time and space things work like this and I have to accept this proof as a reality.

It is late January and this time of the year is a well time for initiation. In recover from the world disaster that I experienced on Christmas, I developed a stable energy for changing. Distraction is always on my reality experience. This demon is disturbing my present moment and doesn't let the process to begin. I feel pleasure and excitement. I give it a chance for a couple of days to see what happens, but with no future from in the view, I betrayed the demon. I see it burning in front of me and this is giving me hope, but I feel that I am not me.

The magic moment is here. Feeling a lot stable, I packet my thoughts and I am waiting for the train to come to get me where I want to get. I wear black glasses and after a couple of minutes I realize that is no train. Ironical laugh on my face, I get up and go to a safe point in order to become more self-aware of the attraction process. I visualize in my mind 2 bottles of liquid smelling good and I feel like I am dying of thirst. I am working hard with my mind, zero confidence, no response from my brain cells and no response from God. Thoughts are racing in my mind with no control over my emotions or beliefs. I have to recalibrate my brain and create a new program to initiate a procedure for achieving what is lost. This procedure of having my legs or hands in contact with salt water for a couple of minutes are rising my state and it's giving me a sensation of self-awareness, I like it and I feel a little better. I like it with hot water, but I found out that cold also works well. I guess maybe I have to meditate with my eyes closed, my hands on my knees and with the palm in the sky direction. It's getting better and this 101 meditation that I developed is helping me in the present moment, but a lot of resistance is following me. Thoughts are rolling in my mind at the speed of light and I can't control them, because I feel like I am blocking the natural flow that wants to come to me. I feel ill and I want to evade from this prison of thoughts. It's like 5 a.m. and I found this book with some information to proceed forward in my path. Tomorrow I will start exploring and thinking.

I studied 2 motivational books and it's alright for now. I am out in the crowd and I hear loud music. Humans are drinking color liquid and act strange. This K-demon stepped of my feet. I hear apologies and I feel apologies. She asked me things that I don't understand. I don't feel that communication is working on us. Finally, I let her to inspire me and nothing special happens, till demon hits again. She is persevering very well and I let her talk via social media. I see a dating proposal and communication start happening. I am stable on my process and a little distraction can't get me out of the track. I feel distracted, but I am very permissive.

I have lot of sins that I don't feel the need to express them with the world. I have some undesirable habits and don't develop any new desirable habits. I think that I have habits which are out of my control and I feel weak. I feel betrayed and I am with all my sins alone. I feel grateful that I have the power to fully understand patience and perseverance. More relaxed after meditation, I decide that I need something that would make a difference in this world. Mathematical thoughts are in my mind right now. I choice one and that is 443 520 595. I don't want to express this emotion and thought with nobody, but soon they will understand. After all this months of slow movement I feel confident. No distraction, continuously meditation and continuously feeling better and self-aware I want to experience some material possessions in this part of my life. There is a blue car that this men want me to pay a 6 numbers and it's snowing. As I am walking on my daily basic I try to vision myself in the present moment having desirable things and honor. Emotions given by sins are destroying my inner peace, but I feel strong emotions of power.

Enough is enough and it's been some time from when I started meditation, but distractions are everywhere. I have to take this seriously and make a difference in this world, because is full of mess and this is goodbye. From now I am meditating double, because I want to receive a thought to get much closer to what I have to do. I am starting to feel something about messages, about dreams and attraction. I like to read the best ones and to experience the feelings of the best ones that lived on planet Earth. Also I feel exalted when I watch movies about the Universe.

I have all the information to eat healthy and I decided to update my diet and vegan sounds awesome. No meat, just raw food for a period. I want to begin each day with spirulina, chlorella and zeolite powder. I am keeping my positive thoughts in order and as I drink from this high vibration diet I feel connected like never before. I am walking through nature far away from distraction and to experience non-resistance. I am taking care of my physical body and I assimilate a lot of information from documentaries about special people who lived on planet Earth, who did things and I pray that I achieve not only "the soul of Jesus" doing the "Soul of Jesus meditation", but also take the wisdom from all the best people that remained in history. I listen to binaural beats each night to connect more with the Universe and detox my pineal even more.

I have willpower and I meditate everyday 2 or 3 times per day about 40 min per session. I want to accept this attraction plan as a part of myself so I do a routine everyday even if it hurts, but I really want to achieve my best reflection and reach all information about this world. I want to have 101% self-confidence doing this humble meditation and I feel like is helping me to change. I feel that is helping me to connect with myself with "I" that I was in my child days. This is the emotional vision that I have to remember, because that is where I left me, the real me. Still I remember that I want to accomplish my best dreams so I standstill to receive an idea from somewhere to materialize my dreams. 13 March is the best day of my life, because finally, I receive this idea. It was worth it to do this meditation for about one month and a half and it is 5 a.m. and I am doing the 101 meditation. I am thinking about my dreams and suddenly, without my intention my mouth said "How did I make 100,000,000 euros?"...Ops...this sounds like a book so this is what I have to do. My eyes are opened and I have to make a book in order to receive this amount. Ok, write it down and search online "how to publish a book" and the information is here. I see that you can self-publish a book for a reasonable price. Yes! As I go to sleep I thank God.

I know very well what I have to do in order to achieve my best reflection. I know instruction for life, they are projected on my pupils every day, but sometimes it feels so strange to know that this process is a blind experience. I mean is like a game, I am blind and I have to follow my emotional system and use it as sonar to play this game name the dream of life experience. That means that my emotional system has to work at full performance in order to make the right decisions in the projection zone.

A couple of days later...I said. "I will begin now and somehow in one week the book will be done. I never did this, how do I make a book?" . "I will do it anyway still I have nothing, but time". After one week the book is done, but...is a mess. "I will do it, because I want this so bad". Said and done and after one week the book is good. Now make an account rapidly on this free self-publish site and get your book out there on the best platforms so the people can see it and that is all. I did my job and I have to sit back and wait. In the meantime, let's learn some more about the dream of life experience.

In search for instructions for life to raise my knowledge I recover some tips for healthy lifestyle also known as high vibrational diet. Finding and consuming spirulina, chlorella and zeolite powder sounds very good. Fresh 16 April 15' I will focus on consuming this type of foods with little or without any meat intervention in my diet. I am listening everyday with my earphones to high frequencies for decalcifying and activation of my pineal gland in order to receive information crystal clear. In the last days of the month I begin to feel weird, the activation started and I feel flawless, connected and in non-resistance like a feather. I am on my way and I am feeling good and I will push forward.

I began to experience the results of this high vibrational diet. I am pushing hard on my physical body thru gym. Body and mind are interconnected so both have to be healthy. My intention is on my dream and I have hope. I ask myself each day a lot of things and I visualize myself beyond ordinary. Day and night I dream a lot. Even if I am walking in the park observing the parameters of the program that we live in or I am just before sleep, I dream and I dream big. I experience different things and different places with my thoughts and emotions and with my eyes closed. I am trying to find myself, I am asking, I am searching and I will find my love. I accept different dates for my dream to become reality and I decide when to happen and what to achieve.

I think I need a break. I pushed so hard that right now I am lost .Information comes to me each day and I have to struggle to keep it in control and now I am doing the perfectionist game and obsessions get to me so easily. I feel that struggle exist and it's happening right now as the wisdom crowd says “move forward”. I am becoming obsessive and I have lots of material desires in my mind and I just want them. I think I want to express my power within me with all the material desires. I have days when I quit this experience for security reasons. Self-confidence is one thing, but I feel self-delusion. I have to stop it and try to re-enter in the real life, because I dreamed a lot.

I will get out of my mind and I will get it if I have to. I am very obsessive to act and very obsessive to think. This feeling is devouring me, but I'm strong for this experience and I go beyond my demons. Obsessions are killed by this man with a disease running in a parking lot for me to help him with some money to buy some food and I get scared and run away from him with no feelings for a second, but then it hit me. I feel total depressed for couple of hours and then I let it go. Thoughts like “What is happening with you”, “A lot of people are in struggle”, “You have everything and you don't deserve it”, “You want more”, “Greediness is taking part of your life”, “That man was in struggle”. He showed me his syringe that he had to inject everyday with insulin in order to live:

“I am total unaware of what I feel right now. Explosions of mixed emotions get me down”

“I feel so sad and thoughts are on my mind.”

“God, please forgive me I am praying for this man”

It's heaven just a dream, because I like the term "dream" even if it is a dream made reality or just the inscription on there. What dreams can bring and what are dreams? I like escaping the material form anytime I want thru dreaming even it's on a field of grass or before sleep. There is no key to happiness and no key to success and what matters is inside you. I am starting with the man in the mirror. I find my beliefs in the mirror, I find what I love and begin from there. Obsession is for people who forced dreams to become reality. Maybe I want it, but I don't desire it and don't resonate with who I am. The mind understands that wanting is a pending process, a dream in the afternoon and it's not the same as possessing it and in conclusion it doesn't manifest and it doesn't begin the process of becoming. To create and to understand it's not that easy as presented. Understanding who you are, what you think, where you come from, why you want it, the difference between want it and desire it. It's about your emotional system, your belief system the intimacy on good or bad. It's about a healthy lifestyle that is maintained by a high vibrational diet, clean thoughts, detachment and youth interior. Life is meant to be abundant, but it's not the case in the dream of life experience. The dream of life experience is more for acceptance and expression of the person that I am. The dream of life is the single experience that I can access the expression of "Who I am" in a physical body, but this experience is mediocre and a lot of power is lost by materializing. In fact is supposed to be this way, because is there between heaven and hell and the border between good and bad. That's the price we have to pay to experience all this physical process. Think about if life was abundant from zero, why should we experience the dream of life? It is very good how things work here, now. Sometimes I have thoughts that this way was always working, but our eyes see that material is working in a physical experience, but our true sense is not here. Hell or heaven doesn't exist and is just a perception. You can experience hell by having negative outputs as well you can experience heaven by having positive inputs in your life.

This world of empty people, greedy humanoids and full of resistance has an expiration date. The perception is wrong and I want to speak out load from the deep of my heart that all is here. I feel resistance thru my thoughts and it is getting annoying. I let go of the resistance and I want to connect to the normal rate perception for ultimate intelligence. Why I am so obsessed and don't want to let go? I want to say something or maybe I am dreaming. Maybe presenting the Alspel to the world will clear a lot of things in the dream of life experience and I hope that the experience will be a lot better with the 22 ALSPEL presented in a material form and I hope that people will understand and accept instructions for life 22 for the sake of the experience.

The 22 ALSPEL

ALSPEL 1:1

There is no GOD, supreme manifestation named bigger than you. The name God represents evolution and God is simple. God is a feeling, a state of evolution, higher vibration or action, non-limit, non-resistance state of mind, unconditional security, silence and peace. I believe in me and I believe in you. I believe that what we see is an experience with mixed emotions and eyes are just a part of the normality of the dream of life experience. A supreme manifestation doesn't exist and it feel like somebody is there in the sky, because the reflection of our perception. It reflects the same image, but in different creation. I believe that we are a representation of a supreme manifestation in a human body. The first is the ultimate perception of the dream of life and the second is the flesh that makes us a part of the normality in the dream of life experience. This game with mixed emotions is a game that we all created in order to experience mixed actions and emotions and the abundance exists.

ALSPEL 1:2

Our language can change our behavior, mental health, thoughts and emotion and in conclusion we deceive our true self. With different language come different traditions and different lifestyles based on traditions and the city that we grew up, our parent that educate us and give us beliefs and emotions from their experiences. This is how the structure of a human is created and modified. The human must have the courage to see his true sense and make it a reality in the dream of life experience; a representation of his own style and personality. Sometimes, I wonder how the next person thinks, perceive and feel everything. We are like actors, born and raised in different time and space with different perceptions about what is life, what we are, what we can do, our path and how we can find it.

ALSPEL 1:3

In the dream of life experience we tend to lose our true self and we don't ask ourselves what is that we see and what life means, because of the distractions. I guess a lot of people are not aware of what they came for. We are here to experience and to give the world a different level of experience thru our own uniqueness, but all this different distractions get people attached by material and negative thoughts like there are limitation, like there is just an amount of something and life has to be like this. Ironically the dream of life experience is made from abundance and the reality that is perceived is created by each individual. What you see is a clear expression of the things that you believe in, the things that you like and what you die for. Life is just and when you put the correct amount of beliefs and emotions you see life in colors, but an incorrect amount can get you to see life in negative colors.

ALSPEL 1:4

No information about instructions for life is promoted and people experience abuse of negative experience and a delusional path. A lot of energy is put into the mediocre rate perception with social networks and meaningless products, the mind is always racing for material that doesn't even matter at all and the focus is on the opposite direction. Without a true sense of awareness people don't know who they are and what is happening right now. On one hand is good and normal to not know everything and to not be like a supreme manifestation, because it's a part of the normality that we live in to experience the material, but one other hand people have to know at least the minimum information about what is happening and accept the dream of life experience. Most of the people don't know what is happening never mind of knowing who they are and what they have to do here. The world shows only the script "work and sleep" and people are born and they see this and they emulate that and can't recognize the originality. Everybody is unique and can do something special for the dream of life experience and this has to be the single work to do.

ALSPEL 1:5

Live life the real way and make it how you want it, because it is all a dream. Why do you make things so complicated? This is not why you experience the dream of life. In the end we all die so you have to create something in your mind that works with you and gives you a meaning in the dream of life experience, something that you are passionate about and want to work for a material representation of who you are in this experience. When your life is abundant you experience heaven and when you experience negative feedback you experience hell. Heaven and hell are a state of mind so stop believing in paranormal activities as well in thoughts or beliefs that you hear from mediocre people that don't have normal coordinates. Find your answers in you and stop the outside. All that you believe is true is real. Stay grounded and honest to who you are, for your thoughts, for your emotions, for your beliefs and you will see answers and perfection.

ALSPEL 1:6

Without solitude you can't connect with a supreme manifestation. What is a supreme manifestation? When I was younger I thought that God looks like an old bearded man in the sky that is very good and can help us thru hard times. But now I have a deeper understanding of me and I don't believe in God anymore. For me God is a thought for mediocre people that don't have 101 percent divine confidence in their normal rate perception. 101 divine confidence means having secure confidence without any negative thoughts, doubts or limits and without asking why. To have this crazy belief in you that nobody can stop you and it doesn't matter what is happening outside. I want to tell you that when I learn this attraction process I believed in a supreme manifestation, but now I experience the feeling that I am God. I believed in me and I have 101 percent secure confidence in me. This world is a dream and you have to take it as it is. You have to have that believe that you are a powerful representation in a material form in the dream of life experience and that this world is yours and you can make it the way you want it. You control the world and the world is at your feet praying for you and this thought is real, real as it can be. It is manifesting right now, but everything has a price so you need a lot of solitude in order to connect with your inner self, to ask questions and see the truth. The supreme manifestation that you are searching for is you and you are here and have everything that you need with you in you.

ALSPEL 1:7

Visualization is a higher process and when you visualize a situation you enter the constructor in solving your needs by accessing the normal rate perception for help and plans. That is where you can see or achieve your best reflection because in this way you receive your plans to build everything that you want in the dream of life experience. Emotional system, believe system have to be updated for you to access this plans via bridge. The pineal gland is the bridge that connects your mediocre rate perception to the normal rate perception. The normal rate perception is the constructor or God. That is where you create your new world and take plans for you to construct in the dream of life experience. When you will believe in the dream of life experience the plans will come to you and it will appear suddenly in the mediocre rate perception.

ALSPEL 1:8

Somehow, I suddenly see all organic. It doesn't matter what it is, it just feels this way after the truth has been accepted deeply within the believe system. With this I mean that everything is connected and if you think about it and you cut down the material it is very clear that everything is made from the same thing and has the same structure. When you are aware of the dream of life experience you feel connected and you can see the experience thru your emotional system and the intuition is set to change parameters in your perception for you to experience the originality that is expressed in the dream of life experience.

ALSPEL 1:9

I believe that we feel before we think. Material things have low vibration and it's nothing better and bigger than you. The expression of the physical body is the "Who you are" and there is nothing bigger than your perception and your material expression in the dream of life experience; you are a supreme manifestation. Who are you grateful for? There is no God and if the ball isn't black than it's white so the real creator is you and you are the one who deserve this recognition. You are grateful to you so you don't have to say "I am thankful for" you just have to feel the emotion for yourself. You have to offer this appreciation to yourself and it's enough to just feel the result of your delight, of your expression as a material body, but also the expression of your thoughts and emotions. You have to be grateful for you and the originality that you possess that is unique and that is your power to manifest and you have to use it as an expression of who you are in the dream of life experience.

ALSPEL 1:10

The material can modify the spirit affecting the mediocre rate perception with abnormal parameters and once this part it's accomplish a strong delusional path appears in front of your eyes with total blindness. People are unstable and the material can modify your emotions and beliefs so you have to stay focused on who you are and what you have to do to become more aware of who you are. Materials are a part of the normality of the program and also a part of the experience, but the material can keep you distracted from what is important and that is the awareness of who you are. Fears are defeated thru positive mindset with roots in the belief system. Faith consists in the grounded parameter in the belief system that is set on a material form dream life experience and it's a very clear aspect of a constructed parameter that is already done.

ALSPEL 1:11

I chose this world because my enthusiasm exploded, until materialization. I wanted to be in this world to help people, be my best reflection and change the world based on my perception. I am not here just to work it out and we are here for the same scope. Death is the only way out and the reason why we forget who we are or what we are or where we come from is based on death. Death dissolves everything because is preparing you for your next universal experience. You don't have to know what it was, because you felt it already. I am sure that out there are infinite worlds to choose and life after death exists. You already know and you just project circumstances that will help you understand who you really are.

ALSPEL 1:12

It is so hard sometimes and I feel like I am dying inside, but I know that what I experience right now is preparing the big picture for me to experience what is necessary. Maybe I don't understand the circumstances right away, but I know that this helps me to know me more and achieve my best reflection. I like staying in the presence of people who ask themselves "What day it is?" .Be bold, laugh and you will make anything that you want and as times goes by you will automatically learn to let go of the things that makes you die inside. I used to think that I am walking in the parks of Heaven every day in the morning, loving life the way it supposed to be and the more I was happy and align with this great power, the voice in my head become more crisp and clear. Lighting can be very strange to attain, but in the end it is worth it and all things begin to shape the way you feel about them. It's very easy, but easy it is just a perception and it all starts with the first dream. "It is all just a dream and I am the creator of this reality. When I accessed the dream of life experience my thoughts of who I am disappeared, but my feelings remain so I had to discover and decide going thru the world who I am and why I am here. I created this reality the way it is with good and bad. The dream life may be called 'lost and found' and has no secrets or mysteries.” There is nothing to seek or search. The purpose of this dream experience is just for fun and relaxation, to feel this simulation, to feel this moment and be free. To be free means that you are in full control of you actions and thoughts and you are not attached by no material including humans. There is no other thing to experience than this. Accept the present and wonder at things.

ALSPEL 1:13

A balance between your belief and emotion is necessary for total awareness, a balance of your belief and emotion that you experience now. You have to be focused on balance, because if your emotions are too strong and you can't control them, the belief system has to suffer. The belief system is more important than the emotional system; you are what you believe you are and it is more necessary to believe than to feel. Emotions are a part of the normality of the dream of life experience, but emotions can keep you distracted and away from what you believe in, from who you are, from what is necessary for you to evolve in the present moment. Negative emotions are good sometimes; remember what is important and try to maintain a normal rate perception that can make your intuition pop out. What you do, believe, think and experience are getting you where is necessary. There is no fail plan and all the solutions have positive endings in the dream of life experience.

ALSPEL 1:14

Here everything is possible. All that it is and is possible is right here in front of you. There are no secrets to reveal, to explain or to be founded and it is just a dream. You see what you feel. Your needs appear in front of you and all is made from the same material and a lot of extensions. All is connected via the same type of material that the dream of life experience is constructed. Live this moment assisted by your inner voice so you can remember it with pleasure. All that matters is the present, nothing is forever and no possession that we have is truly ours. All things require a state of awareness and it needs time to understand what it is and why is necessary. It's not the butterfly effect right in the stomach, but a deeper sense of life understanding. Your true meaning means detach. Your true meaning means surrender. Your true meaning is universal and has no feelings attach to it. Your true meaning is awareness; your true meaning is balance. The universal state is a background parameter that is hard to see from an improper mind. There is no detach between physic and spirit; it's a unity. What we are is all and what it is will never be revealed.

ALSPEL 1:15

When you lose your awareness about the dream of life experience, when you lose your instructions for life you lose yourself. Life is your playground and you are the creator, you are aware of what is happening day by day and you can do whatever you feel you can do. Our perception of the dream of life experience is done by our brain. Our brain perceives things thru our belief system with brutal answer in the emotional system. The belief system has to be managed, because there are a lot of infiltrators that can sneak into the system and change parameters without any permission. The mediocre rate perception is the mind that you can perceive everything and can be called the devil. The hidden conscience is God and is the normal rate perception. There are no separations between the two perceptions and it's all a unity.

ALSPEL 1:16

Time is a parameter in the dream of life experience. The flow of life is moving and doesn't wait for nobody. All that is happening right now including your thoughts, emotions and beliefs are happening right now. Nowadays, we forgot our place in the normal experience and the forgotten luxury that we have. The mentality is like "material represents all" and success is an emotional feeling that is required to be experienced now which is not the focus we need. The dream of life is provided with emotional feedback to recover information from the exterior. It has to feel real, elsewhere why experience it? It is all organic and you can access different points in time to change your perception about your present. Visualization is an extraterrestrial form of understanding in 2016. The reality that you perceive is a representation of the believe system, the dream is made from thinking, from visualization, the aware of the dream of life experience. The experience is made from desire and not energy. Desire is a form of energy, a form of wanting a form of movement so it's defined as energy, but what really creates the material form is desire and desire is a thought attached to a belief system with feedback in the emotional system. In conclusion nothing is real and nothing really matters, but experience. The result of experience is a form of consumption. The dream of life experience is a world based on consumption, not attachment. Life is a big dream and I am so grateful to be here to feel the experience I encounter in my path.

ALSPEL 1:17

The expression of the material in the dream of life experience is desire and people chose this type of world from infinite possibilities. This is what humans experience today and the experience that we all coexist in is created by humans. The dream of life is a representation of a material form in a cube experience with rules like similarity, weather, money, time, seasons, mixed emotions, language and so on, but what is not seen is different. Without awareness of the body and perception people can't see the unseen. The material is a part of the normality of the dream of life experience, but without a strong connection of the perception, emotions and beliefs people aren't prepared to experience. Without instructions you don't know how to function and to maintain an experience or a product expressed into a material form. The experience is dominated by laws and so the human as a part of the experience. Even birth is a rule in the dream of life experience.

ALSPEL 1:18

The dream of life has hints set at different times and spaces to help us rediscover the forgotten path and remind us about our mission here on planet Earth. We have to discover our path by the flags that we put before materialization and then the dream of life experience is safe. Hints may appear as a dream, city where we grew up and more often in the childhood. There are no forces from the exterior that can modify the action of man and no one can leave planet Earth, because it's not possible. We are not allowed and there is nothing to search and find. The single mission is to make the program a better place and to experience. Planet Earth must be evolved to a New Universal Experience. If I have to choose to be in this program I will do it because my desire. The program has viruses and must be cleaned. We came here for helping and not accumulation of wealth, disrespect and arrogance. Humans forgot what they came for.

ALSPEL 1:19

There is life after life; there is experience after experience and there is dream after dream. There is no death after life and death means nothing. Death is a part of the normality in the dream of life experience and it's meant to be this way for the normality of the program, a transition for the material to be dissolved and a correct connection for the first rule that creates the dream of life experience which is time. It is just a part of the normality of the material form to be cleaned. Life after death is a random experience done by thoughts of the present life and good or bad actions. If you are a good person and you have good thoughts, you make good decisions and accumulate actions that will prepare your desires for a new form of experience in a new dream life.

ALSPEL 1:20

A strong man is the one who believes blindly. You don't have to learn nothing; you just have to focus on your believe system on what is planted there from the beginning. The answers are here and not in the exterior. The exterior may tell you how to manipulate the material, but the exterior will not tell you how to manipulate your own dream life experience. What you believe without any information from the exterior exists in your mind and also in the exterior. What you believe is true; you don't need proof and you don't need other people opinions. The dream of life is constructed based on parameters from inside; they are already here. Learn how to read them properly.

ALSPEL 1:21

The conversion to material form from a thought is hard at the beginning. Plans have to be taken from the normal rate perception and materialize them in the dream of life experience. Creation can be explained as a process of "conversion of thoughts" and creation needs visualization. When you let go you experience temperance, silence, equilibrium and high frequencies and thoughts with higher vibrations heals the body. The process can be very complex visualization in excess leads to overthinking. Obsessions appear and this can be a very crucial obstacle in your path to materialization. The energy for creation is needed and is necessary to enter in contact with this form of fuel. When we align with this great power our life unfolds our birth desire. We have the right to know that our beliefs are much safer than others beliefs. We have to create our experience in the mind and feel it in the present moment. Staying in your dreams, visualization and applying emotions is a safety mode to detach from the dream life cube. Make a commitment to accept yourself. Let go off your ambition to fight against the airstream and connect to the rhythm of the dream life experience. Move away from the airstream by not doing anything. If the process is going in the right direction a reflection from childhood is present. The present is a past mirror. You can take the best out there and compare it to the present. See if you're feelings from the childhood is matching with the feelings from the present. Are you in the right waters? Do you feel connected? Rebuild your present by a childhood memory.

ALSPEL 1:22

The concept of attraction or the law of attraction is not responsible for our dream manifestation, but us who coexist in this dream of life experience. We are responsible for our dream life and it's all a projection in real time. A permanent connection has to be established with the normal rate perception so that ideas can be seen for you to materialize a projection in a material form in the dream of life experience. You have to know who you are and what is the natural flow that you have to follow; what corresponds with your emotions and beliefs and what can you give to the dream of life experience. What is your original sign in a material form? .The lack of communication between the mediocre rate perception and the normal rate perception can get you out of the track with serious consequences including death or out of control dream life experience.

ALSPEL 1:23

I began to search for material and for answers, but there is nothing you can find and delusions are a big part of this experience. I believed that possession will fulfill my empty spaces, but I was wrong. This entire 1,000,000 miles road to wishes made me realize that I was searching for myself. Sometimes it is safe to let life to surprise you and it's a big difference between want and desire. People who want material are obsessive and don't know who they are and what is the path that is normal for them and they don't want to work for the dream that they have. To dream is free, but to materialize you have to take actions in the dream of life experience. It is normal to take actions for your dream in order to see it in a material form and this is a part of the normality of the experience. The desire is different, because it receives a call in the belief system and is more natural to accomplish and possess it. It is already here and the actions are already in your normal rate perception; you already exist with the projection and the vibe is perfect. The normal rate perception knows what you desire. The mediocre rate perception only wants it, without any judging.

ALSPEL 1:24

Destiny is the transition between who you are and who you have to be. You have no power to modify this reality until you exit this transition. The transition between limit and non-limit, poor to rich, today to tomorrow takes time and your perception and belief system has to be modified for ascension. You have to do what the normal rate perception has to do. When you delete your limits connection happens and then you just have to figure what the plan is so you can unfold it and meet your destiny for ascension to the next level of the dream life experience. By doing good things in this time and space you create your next life. Based on good or bad you can meet your destiny and accomplish the tasks to fulfill it. The program himself is a blind program and you are older than your parents.

ALSPEL 1:25

Forward is the single direction. No need for overthinking, no need for simulating scenes in your mind, no left or right and all the mysteries are inside you. You chose the dream of life experience and the dream of life is set for you. No need for complaints. No need for suffering. No need to explain yourself and explain your pure emotions to society. The truth is that you are alone in the crowd. You are here to experience something original, something that you wanted to feel in a material form creation. You are not here to heal, you are not here to do what you don't want to do and you are not here to follow. You are here to accept the dream of life experience as it is. You are here to materialize all your crazy visualization and dreams. You are here to create, you are here to prosper, you are here to move mountains, you are here to win and you are here to have it all for yourself and to stay in this type of emotions for your own joy. The dream of life is an experience and consume program and it's meant to be this way for you and for your dreams so you can manifest them correctly. I called heaven and hell a state of mind and is no more to say about them. You can experience heaven as a beautiful program with original emotions or you just could experience hell as a painful and obsessive program. You can overthink, you can be sad, you can be nervous, you can have a hard time explaining yourself, you can suffer, you can wish for things and receive nothing, you can stay in fear and that will be your dominant emotion and that will be hell presented to you as a reality in the dream of life experience.

Destiny is based on your life performance and is represented by the materialization of anything in any time and space. There is no destiny, there is no mission to accomplish and you are not put here by anyone. The parental choice is set by your desire to be created as an entry point in the dream of life experience and your parents are an expression of you and your path. As you grow and create your life by the normal rate perception and you connect your heart with this frequency the Fibonacci spiral begins moving and creates a stable frequency for the dream of life experience, then at the end of your experience you can say “You know, I created my life the way I wanted and materialized all my desires and made all things happen and I am really grateful for the dream of life and for my destiny that I accomplish “. What a beautiful feeling for a happy ending program and what a seed for a new experience to set. Accept your life from where you are and move in the direction of your dreams and don’t let anybody say “you can’t do it” and just for you pleasure, forgive them and believe in yourself even if nobody else does and live in your heart, because that is the gateway to the divine source or the real expression of you. I change the weather with my thoughts and I am feeling limitless. Guide yourself from your heart, from within.

The dream of life experience is the experience we coexist today. You can see the program normality looking outside, seeing something in exchange for something and these actions are a part of the experience, a form of reward and money has a big role. People doing their jobs, communication, social, time, weather and the normal 24 hours that makes the dream of life experience a part of the normality. The good and bad exist also as a parameter in the dream of life experience and the mind has it all. The normal rate perception is interested in what is normal like compassion, creativity, organic foods and eating habits, higher thinking, but the mediocre rate perception is attached by the material thru obsessions, possessions, money and fear. It can get worse than this by staying focused on the needs of the mediocre rate perception. Time also known as the 24 hour worldwide transition is a rule in the program that we all coexist. Imagine how many things happen in this 24 hour transition period and how much happens in balance with what a normal person does. How much food is consume, money, emotions, births, deaths and so on. This dream of life experience is amazing. A lot of supplies are being traded right now while you read this and it’s incredible to think like this. The dream of life experience is abundant and you can see it if you look at the grass that grows, look around you and see that the program that we live in is remaking the same parameter over and over again and it doesn’t stop refueling with consumables. This is a truth that you can see looking outside the window. See how many cars are outside meaning that a lot of elements are there like iron, gold and silver. Go to the supermarket and see a lot of meat, a lot of vegetables, a lot of paper, a lot of bread, a lot of abundance in the game that we live in. For me this thought is incredible. Possibilities are here, exists and anything is possible if you feel something about that thought that you want to materialize in your experience. Life is just a continuously moving flow that passes by and time doesn't wait for nobody. No matter who you are or where you are try to give yourself the chance to do what you always wanted to materialize in your experience and don't look back.

ALSPEL 1:28

Mistakes are the things that are made by the mediocre rate perception also known as the logic mind and not by our heart or intuition that transcend the dream of life experience back to our nature. The source is me. The source is you. We are projected here in a material body to play, learn things, experience, but also raise the program vibration and the reward is a higher understanding of the experience. Another time and space exists with different world and different rules. Imagine a world just for relaxation, meditation or just sitting on a beach with the sky painted in white with the possibility to levitate on water and move objects with your mind. I believe that this world exists. I believe that the dream of life program is created by people like me and you, a universal program that let us experience. The best thing about the dream of life experience is that it feels so normal and so materialistic and the difference appears when you materialize a dream in a normal experience. The best awareness that you can find is to know yourself, to live by the secure thought that you are yourself, you evolve and inspire others with your originality.

ALSPEL 1:29

The 101 confidence is created by a simple meditation technique in the presence of salt water. Cold water it better for recover and also to calibrate the normal rate perception. Hot water is good for dreaming, relaxation and visualization. This technique helps you find yourself and express something original based on your pure nature. When you don't have yourself the parameters of the program controls you in some area so you have to focus your energy levels for finding yourself and to deliver the best projection of you in a material form for the benefits of the dream of life experience. A limitless potion for perception is needed so the mind can be open. Imagine a world of limitless possibilities to experience, a world that is yours with all the elements, mountains, waters and sands. Imagine that you have it all and go to beautiful places like an island and make a little village over there. Play some games, eat some fruits, take a swim in the ocean and go to another island and remake the same scenario. Then go to a big city and buy something that you feel that resonates with your nature, something that is for you, like a house with the view of the city, play a cool game on a big screen, then go to your car and take a ride at a maximum speed thru the city, because nobody is there and the world is yours. You have chosen your best life, congratulation. The ultimate reality reaction is based on emotions.

ALSPEL 1:30

People suffer from ignorance “What I am passionate about in life?”, “What can I do in life?”, “What is my path in life?” and I say to you that there is no mission or fate in life and it’s all about experience and because of the things that you feel that are missing from your own world you recognize a certain activity as a passion. There is nothing to do than to experience and there is no destiny, no passion for something specific and we don’t have a meaning. Passions are created from inferiority, from missing, from non-experience and you just give them a positive value in your mediocre rate perception. From the things that you didn’t have or the things that didn’t go as you plan to, you create a passion about specific parameters. The dream of life program is a universal experience made for us so we can experience and create a better program with our imagination and our originality.

ALSPEL 1:31

Most of the people are interested in getting things like money, cars, distractions and they think that this will give them a happy state and will secure the feeling for a long period of time and that is a mediocre perception. Look outside; you have all the abundance you will ever need in a material form and that is water, food, snow, rain, sun, fruits, vegetables, health and so on and this is the real abundance. The materialization of the material or non-material limits the time that you can use in the dream of life experience. Don’t use your best treasure and that is time doing something that will not serve your true personality just for a feeling that has low functionality and exalts you for a period of time, because in the end it doesn’t worth it. What do you think you will find in another place if you simply just reject the idea of the place that you chose to materialize? .The experience is everything so there is no need for wishes and all that exist is here.

ALSPEL 1:32

Abnormal condition of the organism is a wrong projection of the belief system. You don't have a catalogue to distinguish one disease from another so the reality that you manifest in a form of illness is a part of the negative influence that is forcing the belief system to project unconsciously this reality. When it comes to health people always follow medical advice and treatment and on one hand this is a part of the normality of the mediocre experience that we live in and the healing process that is normal for the material, but on the other hand you can't tell the difference between diseases. In the dream of life experience there is no table of contents to say exactly what is that you experience negative in a form of illness so in the end it's a part of the belief system that is infected with negative infiltrators. When you have this perception the body can't get ill, because it can't recognize any disease or disorder in the belief system to create a negative environment in a material form. The only disorder is you, because you want it so much in your experience and you call it now with all your emotions and beliefs.

ALSPEL 1:33

The emotional system is giving us a feedback called emotions and emotions are not real. I don't believe in the concept of love, I don't know how it feels and who said that love exist as a feeling projected in a limit form. I believe in freedom, I believe in a dream without any control from the exterior. I believe in evolution and even the word "love" if you read it backwards it says "evol" from evolution. A universal liberty is the only state of existence. The belief system is more superior and more important than the emotional one and even energy is something that keeps a fire working, but still energy is a universal experience and it is not attached to anything. Everything is a universal encounter, a universal experience and we only are here for the meaning of something in a mediocre material form and to make things palpable with good and bad.

ALSPEL 1:34

Natural seasons exist as a rule in the dream of life experience made for the equilibration of the program and is called regeneration. Winter freezes everything and it gives us a break for rebirth in the spring with abundance in the summer and we remain with a nostalgic autumn. Each season has frequencies and emotions which reflect different sensations for the people to experience and it's a part of the normality of the program. Regeneration is a part of the experience and it's a part of the normality of the program. The program has auto cleaning for people to experience the dream of life experience. The program must contain such a process to maintain the normal functionality of the program. It's all about the program and the things that have same principles as birth and death.

ALSPEL 1:35

We exist as a belief that vibrates in parallel with our needs and the material is not genuine. Disobeying the material leaves us naked and there the truth unfolds. Willpower determines our actions and it keeps sure if our energy is properly exposed over all in order to achieve materialization. The kill is done by emotions that expands our belief system and disobeys our fixed beliefs in the mediocre rate perception. The willpower to begin any actions is created in the secure thought that you know who you are. The simple technique to achieve this state is to stay in contact with water and to want to ask yourself "Who is...?" and then your name; "Who is Ali?", "Who is Alex Cojocaru?" and if you need to go beyond your life till the day you were born. Most answers are in the childhood and in the kindergarten, because there are no distractions; the mind doesn't recognize the world and the distractions and is focused on what is important and that is who you are.

ALSPEL 1:36

I hope that you know the result of a mind that is forced beyond the limit, that is not in control and it's abusing the emotional system with negative influence and infiltrators. An exhausted mind that has negative influence not only creates a negative reality without awareness, but can damage the health of the body by auto destroying the normal environment. People experience wrong reality and sin a lot in 2016 and to sin is to destroy the body. To sin is normal in a program made from mediocrity, but we have to keep a limit for us and for our health. Be grateful for your health, family, people and experience the dream of life program. Things don't work on speed or obsession so take a break, breath and live your dreams in the dream of life experience.

ALSPEL 1:37

People tend to focus everything on their mediocre rate perception and to think logically in a program that is a dream, a total paradox and this is a part of the normality of the experience. It is in the normal nature of the human to think logical in a material program based on mediocrity, but sometimes you have to put a stop and to take some time to sit alone with you and think about you and life “there has to be a meaning, there has to be more than this”. You forgot your true sense; your nature to materialize a dream and your intuition that is the result of your awareness in the dream of life experience. The normal rate perception and the mediocre rate perception are always at war, but the normal rate perception creates the reality and the mediocre rate perception may be in contradictory with it.

ALSPEL 1:38. The Boomerang effect during the dream of life program is needed for protection in a free choice system, but I don't believe in the thought that we are doomed to this effect continuously experience after experience. Our decisions, beliefs and emotions control the system thru a boomerang effect in the dream of life program, but we don't have to accept the fact that our last desire is launching humanity to another experience from a human view and from a mediocre rate perception. I believe that in the last days the experience makes a balance between good and bad, past and current emotions and beliefs and projects humanity to another program to experience a New Universal Experience.

ALSPEL 1:39. Marriage is a lost deal in the dream of life experience and it takes a real understanding in order to commit. For the dream of life is a program based on experience and change, the commitment is limited, because people evolve and change and the emotions have to be in charge to control the commitment between two humans and not the logical thinking. You can experience heaven with another person and it may take some time, but in the end people remain, because of the logical thinking and not the emotions. The health is compromised, because the choice is blind and involves the emotional system. You also have to deal with your partner experiences which you cannot control and it may modify your mood along with your experiences in the dream of life; dematerialization, lost or suffer. I am attached by the thought that “people who get serious are low self-esteem humanoids”. The dream of life experience is a dream and nothing has to be that serious in order to commit.

ALSPEL 1:40. We need to disconnect from the material, because the negative influence from the outside disconnects us from the natural sense. Without our perception the material can't exist and has no form. The dream of life experience is structured and governed by laws which are favorable for experience. The reality that we experience in the dream of life is the result of our perception, beliefs and emotions. High vibrational food keeps us in a forced contact with our normal rate perception far away from distractions and vices. Also it helps us to be aware of the information clearer and fast, maintain our mood in a high vibrational state or non-resistance and keeps our health beyond our normal functionality.

ALSPEL 1:41. Begin to believe in the dream of life experience, begin to believe the simulation, stimulate your present, stimulate your dream, stop time and space and create what is needed for you in the dream of life experience thru beliefs. Truth is often small and powerful. Past universal experiences are only our actions from a past dream experience called old destiny that helps us to materialize to the next universal dream experience. The dream experience is a choice that projects a reality dream in different realities. I am the creator of the dream of life program, you are the creator of the dream of life program and the world that we see is controlled by me and by you thru thoughts, beliefs and emotions, I believe in me and that is what I am.

ALSPEL 1:42. Your motivation to live in the dream of life program in this time and space gives you the chance to fulfill your needs that will appear in the correct amount when you need it. Find what is your stamp and what can you do for the program so the people can benefit from it. Create in your mediocre rate perception that big dream and translate it to your reality and with this knowledge you will join us to make a better experience. In the dream of life experience success is direct proportional with the power to let go. Something better is coming when negative environments exist in the dream of life program. There is always a choice when a negative environment manifest and that is the signal that says “jump”, because something new is waiting for you to experience, the next chapter or the next step. It is important to keep it forward and to move on exactly the way life unfolds in front of you thru your senses.

ALSPEL 1:43. I believe that if you are willing to be exactly as you feel and become your best reflection you will unfold the best destiny you can experience. The dream of life experience can be a blessing for the mixed emotions and you can create your own reality by moving with the flow. Patience is required, but I know you will lead your dreams in a way that is perfect and time and space will modify your belief system, time will accelerate and inevitable frequency changes will occur that will detox your mediocre rate perception. To overthink is to stay in pending and the moment to be is in the present even if the mediocre rate perception will talk a lot you have to reject it, because right now is the time to surrender and by the way you will do that a strange feeling of floating will be present.

ALSPEL 1:44. There is nothing more complex and bigger in the Universe than the projection of the human body. The human must exist in a form and it is complex when you think that the program is made from mediocrity and the word “intelligence” has nothing to do with the experience that we live in. The program normality is expressed thru mediocrity, but is the responsibility of the human to get out of the mediocre zone and to ask and find the necessary awareness and to express it as form of originality in the dream of life experience. Money is a big part of the normality of the program and it gives to the dream of life experience an unique taste, because of money and what they represents to the people. The projection of money is normal, because they are a representation of mediocrity, small cut papers that have a big impact on the dream of life experience. Why do you want to control people in a dream program thru money? Nothing is real and forever and outside the dream of life experience or the material Earth, there is nothing to find. The opposite emotion to money is love, but I don't believe in love either, I believe in security and not in the feeling that excites, because the feeling that excites has the same feedback as the material; the feeling is limited, because of time and time is a rule that is omnipresent in the dream of life experience. The dream of life is a universal experience for mixed emotions and must be treated as a non-reality to experience the mediocre material.

ALSPEL 1:45. We have to accept the fact that is all about the feeling that we keep or create inside and it is not about the material or day dreaming and that is the source of recognizing. I am not focused on the present, but aware of the space that I am and the program is running in my head in a state of non-resistance. I like to see things the way they are in a nude reality and sometimes it is scary. We have to accept our originality that comes and goes; the all searching path that all humans want to see can be discovered using audio frequencies, because frequencies are good for bad times to recalibrate your true sense. The process of death or thought of death can't accelerate the normal movement of the dream of life experience with negative emotions and the expression of it is created in the mediocre rate perception; death means nothing and it is a mediocre transition between two experiences. We have to find something that we can create or do and believe in it and we have to connect the feelings of what is good to experience and we will be exactly where we have to be and we will represent our true originality and we will be different.

ALSPEL 1:46.I am from Romania and I live the Romanian dream life experience and this is what I needed to see. The answer for “Why I wanted to experience the Romanian dream life experience?” is inside my natural environment and here I can find the answers for my total perfection that is projected outside in a material form for me to experience. In another universal experience on another planet enlightened humans live in nature, in positive emotions and heaven is a planet. The human is the center of the Universe and he can make his own destiny by thought. Planets are sending direct energy to his mind to influence it. The experience that I am talking about has no meaning this way. Positivity is not always good and a complex universal program is made from mixed emotions, good and bad. That is why the dream of life experience is a complex program for us to experience.

ALSPEL 1:47.Understand your human potential power based on your emotional system. True wealth is based on authentic memories of security and true experiences that you may encounter day by day. When you accumulate your biggest desire of wealth you can see reality more detached and you wonder “Why I need to experience this?” .Appreciate every experience and be grateful for who you are and from where you are. The dream of life experience has limited functionality and has to be accepted with good and bad. Experience means both good and bad and you have to be able to see the beauty in every projection, because it is yours. This is the only thing that matters, because is who you are and this is something that nobody can take and no wealth can buy.

ALSPEL 1:48.The dream of life is beautiful and is based on the Fibonacci sequence. The program is made to be perfect in any conditions to experience and evolve. Oxygen is the fuel for life, the electricity, but oxygen is a part of the normality of the dream of life experience; a part of the natural functionality in the program. Materials have to be explained somehow and have to work somehow to be experienced in the dream of life experience; the wheels must move. Secondary living creatures are necessarily for day by day environment like cleaning and maintenance and are a part of the natural functionality in the program. Everything happens perfectly and even the sun and seasons come along together very well, dreaming and sharing security most of the time. Time is also a part of the normal functionality in the dream of life experience that is made from mediocrity; the natural flow for the materials to manifest and patience and persistence is attached by time.

ALSPEL 1:49. The dream of life is a balance between giving and getting. If you give you have more chances to be more aware of life and what it is thru special emotions that you encounter as a feedback in the emotional system for your beauty. Life is a creation for the natural flow of movement of the material. If you continue to create and to give you will unfold what is necessary for you, but life is a balance between giving and getting and life has this special prizes that will give back to you every time as a reward for your kindness to work with the normal rate perception. Don't do what you like, but rather do what make you curious and stay in that balance. Every human is an artist in his own way and this is very important. People who are near the artistic part can't change and can't emulate to the dream of life program, because they try to remain fixed and perfect to their true nature and to their awareness. They know their duty very well from the first day in the dream of life experience.

ALSPEL 1:50. When the feeling of déjà vu appears in your reality that is the signal that says you are on the right path. The feeling of déjà vu is a familiar feeling in a special place and the reproduction of the "known" is the confirmation that you are on the right track to become what is necessary. The déjà vu is an anomaly presented as a feedback in the emotional system in the dream of life experience that makes you to stop time and to say "I experienced this before" so you can be aware of the red flag that is put on your path for you to become more self-aware.

ALSPEL 1:51. The simple things in life come free to us and to be creative is all that you can ask for. To create something that is yours, to represent your true nature, to express who you are in a material form so original is the best achievement you can get. The rest of abundance is free and you can see it outside. You don't own it, but you use it and that is the same thing. Only the mediocre rate perception is telling you that you are abundant when you have something in possess. The truth is that you are abundant right now. Thoughts and emotions have to be in balance so you can experience a new energy in a material form. The concept of energy from planets, solar system and horoscopes are false and don't affect the humans choice. The mind is responsible for the direction and what you see is done by perception and intention. The human is in full control of the projection, because the mind is in control of the thought, emotion and belief. Ask what you can ask and don't get distracted. The thing with the horoscope is that you perceive it the way you feel and that is what you see.

ALSPEL 1:52. When you don't like something about what is projected outside try to accept yourself and give you the best chance to have a security feeling with you and a focused dream. Accept what is inside and all the things that surround you. When it comes to materialization, connect your thoughts with your belief system and you will have it. Until you make steps you must learn to feel and make steps. The dream of life experience is a reproduction in a material form of the belief system and the emotional system. The connection between these two systems creates the reality that you want to experience and is expressed thru a material form; is like a game, a virtual reality that feels so real and so exciting. For a life well spent go above and beyond your comfort zone.

ALSPEL 1:53. The system based on beliefs and emotions is not automatic and we can experience by choice the dream of life experience. It is important to not stay focused for so long in the material form, because it can bend the present reality and you can have maximum limitation for your real potential. You are not real and the reality is a dream that is constructed in a way that it feels so palpable and so manifested right now. Our senses make the dream of life experience to feel this way; in this situation the dream of life experience may seem a dream with senses. We can experience what we want in many forms, because we have free choice in the present moment. The dream of life program is an open experience in a state of awareness.

ALSPEL 1:54. Don't believe in what you see, because time and materials are a representation of the present system and the human is controlling the program. The mediocre rate perception is obsessive and is keeping your thoughts to not experience the dream you deserve. All the emotional result behind the obsessive rate perception called delusional emotions keeps the experience process in a state of pending. The mediocre rate perception must be let alone in solitude and we must use it as a tool of graphic representation for what we want to experience. Patience is required, but if you are detached you don't feel the influence on your experience; the state of detachment has more to do with confidence and confidence is the awareness of who you are and what you can do. Obsession will be part of the experience and also a part of the normality in the dream of life experience, until you will understand the difference between want and desire. Resistance can be the worst thing in the process of recognizing yourself, but still a part of the normality in the dream of life experience and the only way to become more aware of yourself is to go forward.

ALSPEL 1:55. By visualizing the big picture and focusing on the new experience, you can materialize anything, but without emotional feedback and the feeling that is already a part of your experience and the emotions that fits your personality it doesn't even matter and you don't want it; has more to do with obsessions and the mediocre rate perception. There is no need to force anything and what is necessary will come natural without any pressure. The point is to try to make up your mind and keep it clean with no material distractions or thoughts that can distract the normal movement of the dream of life experience. Try to be in the present moment with all that represents your true nature and if you want something bad enough is already yours and you don't have to break yourself to experience it. Trying to have something or to become is not necessary, because what is yours is already manifested with the natural flow of movement. When is natural is for you and when is pressure you don't need it and you have to let it go and move on.

ALSPEL 1:56. What matter is the real age inside rather, than the material age, because all of the attraction and all the projection that is outside your eyes are from the inside. So if you are older inside you like being with old people and do what old people do, but if you are older in the outside and younger in the inside you want to do things that young people do. So everything comes around of what is inside and what is projecting from there. All desires, all principles, all emotions, all the drama and all the abundance comes from inside, from your emotions and from your beliefs. Take control of the system and stop self-destructing yourself from the inside. Don't ever blame anyone for what you experience, for what you projected outside from the inside. The only disease is your system that you have such expectation of it.

ALSPEL 1:57. Emotions transcend present thinking and planning and the best way to be is in the present. The need to control your life thru the mediocre rate perception with the logic thinking like "maybe or if" can get your path and body to feel ill. The call must be from the emotional system which has to take you to what is needed and necessary for you to experience. The dream of life has to be lived in a way that positivity may be palpable. The present negative environment can be shifted with the 101 heart meditation; the focus on the heart zone and as you inhale-exhale you can feel the beat for a second and just stay there and repeat. This way you can feel a non-resistance state and a normal movement of emotions and thoughts may come with it. This meditation must serve the humans only if necessary.

ALSPEL 1:58. What do I want? Pay attention to your resistance. The day when you find your answer to this question is called “recover day”. Also the day when you destroy your obsessions is called “liberation day”; obsessions are created in the mediocre rate perception and has more to do with the mediocre thinking or the logic thinking and the infested perception can’t see the washing process. It can have thoughts attached on emotions like “I am not prepared for the future, because I didn’t lived the past” or “I have to learn things the hard way and put the dream of life experience on hard, because this is how things work”. The infested perception is working properly with illusionary beliefs created by the actual society which infests the dream of life experience. Ignorance can’t start anything it just destroys it all, but in the end we are all humans made from mediocrity to experience so it is what it is and we have to take it as it is and to work with us to become more self-aware of who we are and what can we do for this mediocrity to make it more stable and better.

ALSPEL 1:59. We chose to be in the dream of life experience and we are responsible for our own experience. We knew from the beginning the rules of the program and we accepted them. Our lives don’t belong to us and we are connected to each other; we are all actors and nothing is meant to be taken seriously. The expression of the material can make us blind in front of the truth, a truth that not many can see. The dream of life experience has a sense of irony, because the material that is projected consciously or not can be the expression of heaven or the expression of hell. The illness is inside and you can’t cure the material thru mediocre rate perception or material modification; adjustments must be made from inside, from the expression of the beliefs and emotions and you have the key to unlock the abundant expression of the material. We build our own reality and we project our own expression thru emotions and beliefs. This is the world that we experience and this is fact and it’s expressed right now.

ALSPEL 1:60. In the dream of life experience the human doesn’t need anything and this has to be a standard belief in the system. We have all that it needs to be happy, successful and healthy. Material projections are optional in the dream of life experience. You can be big or small, successful or happy without the need of the material. The perception is responsible for the value that we give to any thought. Some people feel rich or abundant doing small things and having small thoughts. You can destroy yourself and the experience that you project outside, because of perception. To put a value on material and to put a value on thoughts may be devastating; you just need to be yourself to be abundant and this is all that you need. Dreams and the future desires are getting all the pleasure for a limited time. So the best achieving is to be you and to do what you want and not trying to be something bigger, because it's hard and doesn't matter. Try to be you, to be positive and live with simple thoughts. Be who you are in nature and achieve things that really matter, things that have a meaning for you in time. Be true to yourself and don't get distracted by dreams; a dream without actions is free and worthless.

ALSPEL 1:61. The source perception about who you are can't be shaped and you are who you are. It is pointless to try to become somebody or to possess something that you consider bigger in your belief system. This belief makes you small and because of this condition you can't manifest it. A lot of desires are worthless without visualization, because that is how you can see what is reasonable for you. Visualization is a form of simulation in the dream of life experience; you can experience and see what fits your personality. Everything you do is good and necessary for your evolution and for your experience just don't dwell on this thought for a long period of time; be sure, dream and take actions in the dream of life experience. Humans are a part of the normality of the program so it is normal to feel doubts, but in the end if you visualize and start a dream all actions have positive paths that can bring you to the same destination.

ALSPEL 1:62. You have to find what sparks a light in you, what is good for you and you have to find something meaningful. You have to ask yourself a lot of universal questions to find what you are capable of and to see the natural expression that you can manifest in a material form in the dream of life experience. You have to go beyond your daily thinking and imagination to expand your perception in a way that you can see the dream of life experience from different angles. The mediocre rate perception also known as the ego or the logic mind has to be eliminated. During the accumulation of information, infiltrators appear in the mediocre rate perception. Infiltrators are a part of the distractions that keeps you away from who you are and what are you supposed to do in the dream of life experience. In a reality that is an expression of a dream, another dream can change this reality to what is necessary; if you are aware of the dream of life experience and you put your mind to it, nothing is impossible and everything that you feel or think about can be experienced in the dream of life experience.

ALSPEL 1:63. You have to love yourself and lose it all; let go of everything and see what comes around and stays. The materials are created from mediocrity, the necessity to experience a representation of a thought in a physical form. The materials are moving the experience and we don't need material distractions to be happy; happiness has to do with the perception of things and with the belief system. It is all about the beliefs and the emotions and if you believe that you are super happy with just an apple in your hand then happiness exists in the same amount as somebody else may possess something more bigger in their perception, but still with the same amount of happiness. We are stronger and we are in the center of the Universe, because the dream of life experience is created by people that want to experience the normality of life and life is controlled by our common perception.

ALSPEL 1:64. The wrong information about astrology must be deleted and we have to take control of what we need to manifest it. I was having thoughts about astrology like "The life coach or astrology are the wheels that keep us from falling, until we decide who we are and take control of the new destiny in the dream of life experience", but in the end astrology or horoscope means nothing. The human is in control of the thought, emotion and belief and planets don't intervene in no form of energy in the dream of life experience and have no power of the program. Create from the interior and take what your heart wants from there and make it a reality, because this is why you are here; be brave and don't follow the illusion of money. You know very well that the heart has the knowledge to transcend time and space and material things are an illusion. Time passes by and life doesn't wait for anybody and in the end only the experience matters so live in the dream of life experience. Be grateful and appreciate the people around you, because they are the real blessings in disguise. To stay in a high vibrational state all the time you have to be aware of everything that keeps coming with negative clouds; you have to accept the dream of life experience, because you chose it and you have to go through it.

ALSPEL 1:65. I believe that time isn't real and all the actions in the past didn't happen. The actions in the dream of life experience are limited in resources for the next 100 years. No Jesus, no 0 year and this are just "actions from the past" for people from today to be distracted and to miss the truth and also a part of the program reality perception. It has to be this way so the materials can move and to feel so real and normal and it's a part of the normality and functionality of the dream of life experience; the action spins around 100 minus and 100 plus years. The dream of life experience can be abundant or it can have infinite actions build on millions of years, but in this situation it is not needed. Why you need an experience based on consume to have infinite actions build on millions of years and why is needed a day zero or a big bang? .The dream of life experience doesn't need no explanation and big questions like "Who you are and where we come from?" don't have no sense and no purpose. The need is to experience a short amount of time in a consuming program and not infinite actions that are processed thru millions of years and we are here to experience some parameters in a limited period of time. To be able to create an experience so real you need actions from the past and actions from the present so the material can move freely; without these parameters the reality can't be so palpable and real. In the past people were living in no distractions and the mind was looking at the sky travelling to whatever questions appear. People were creating art and did what they could for living a decent life with a strong belief in a supreme manifestation that created them; this is a part of the normality of the actions that happened in the past, but also a normality movement for the experience reality reproduction. Today we create machines to simplify distractions. The idea that even the smallest materials we use are made from the exact source is the ultimate abundant thought. You can use right now a desk made from wood and it can be more expensive or equal to something that you believe is more expensive, because the nature of the material that is made from the same expression; this thought may produce change of perception. Perception can be modified and if you want to see something in contradictory you will see, but if you want to see something amazing you will see. In conclusion nothing is right and nothing is real and is all about the normal rate perception or the mediocre rate perception and the attachment we give from the belief system and the emotional system.

ALSPEL 1:66. Find the real "Who I am?" and eliminate the thinking of the mediocre rate perception, because the logic mind is the devil. The "Who I am" must be find in places were the mediocre rate perception is silenced and can you hear nothing. The mediocre mind can assume whatever the perception wants, intoxicating the normal rate perception. You can start by looking outside of who you are. What is that you do every day and what is that you did in the past. You can ask yourself "Who am I..." or "Who am I, without..." and fill the sentence. "Who am I, without the car that I am driving?", "Who am I, without the house that I live in?", "Who am I, without my parents", "Who am I if I didn't go to that school?", "Who am I if I accept to stay with the wrong person?”, “Who am I if I don’t change?” .Ask yourself a lot of questions, until the mediocre rate perception will fall down to the real expression of who you are. A lot of distraction from the everyday life can get you intoxicated with negative perception and can get you obsessed with beliefs that you don’t deserve.

ALSPEL 1:67.I believe that what we want has no meaning, because we give too much attention to possessing a material in a consuming program that is meant for experience and not possessing. In reality we want to experience and we want freedom and not the expression of it like money or materials. You can decide what you want with your mediocre rate perception, but then you have to silence that perception with the awareness of the functionality of the dream of life experience. The mediocre materials can be silence thru the awareness of who you are and the reality that you know what is happening and what is experiencing right now. You have to orient yourself in the dream of life experience by the emotional system so it is recommended to have good emotions and be focused on the truth or what it is that you want to experience. The emotion has to be the divine guide for you to follow in the dream of life experience and not what you see or the thought that depreciates the reality that is presented right now. A permanent connection has to be established with the real expression of you in the dream of life experience and a balance between what you see and what you feel should be examined more often.

ALSPEL 1:68.The dream of life experience and the Earth are created from emotions. Planet Earth is what we call our best planet in the Universe and our emotions are dreams that come true. Dreams come true when you live in the present and you are focused on the feeling and not on the present reality; the present must be lived and not aware of it, because the present is here and the awareness must be put on you. This process can have a downside, because the awareness must be represented by an expression of the thought and the focus of the thought can get you to overthink and to be obsessed with all the coming information in your mind so you have to be attentive, but still the normality of the experience will get you to be obsessed. Visualization with all senses is the kind of eye closed expression that gives you feedback in the emotional system and makes you feel mixed emotions. This is the expression module that you want to access to see how it fits your personality and if it’s necessary for the representation to be in a material form expressed.

ALSPEL 1:69.You already chose the best dream of life that you could possible experience, but you don’t recognize the path, because you experienced a distracted dream. Nothing is important and nothing means something unless we give a positive value in the dream of life experience. I will go far away from the dream of life experience in my next journey. I know there is a lot to explore and to experience. To understand the concept of “just be” is more than knowledge and it isn’t a walk in the park. You can’t achieve something or become somebody in a comfort zone. Even if you know yourself and even if you have talent you have to be prepared to get out of the comfort zone and express your personality thru actions. Talent, passion and who you are doesn’t come in comfort and nothing can evolve in comfort. You have to go beyond your ordinary vision and achieve a different belief system in order to see different experiences. That is how things work and it’s a normality of the dream of life experience. You can stay in comfort and achieve nothing or you can go and explore a new different experience or a new different you and achieve abundance.

ALSPEL 1:70. Who you are and what is that you need lies at the end of the unseen or the unaware perception. Don’t be sad about something you did not own; you don’t own it, because you don’t want it or you can’t see it and it isn’t for you. The perception can make your desires pop out from the unseen perception and you have to learn to see life thru different angle points. Try to be aware of the wrong perception and let life to unfold by itself and you will start to believe in things and a lot of undefined thoughts and emotions will become clearer and you will understand the dream of life experience better. Life is an interesting place when you are grateful for everything that you encounter, but awareness is more important than the feeling of gratefulness. You have to be aware of you from the interior and your thoughts will become original and you will experience different perceptions. Be permissive with this mediocre expression, because you can’t ask for more intelligence in a place constructed from mediocrity; the rest will fall in the right place, in the right time, in the right amount.

ALSPEL 1:71. The dream of life experience is a game and you have to accept all parameters including yourself. You forgot who you are and you materialize in this material body and you have to remember all the details so you can see thru walls. Without knowing yourself, without a path that you have to walk on, without a dream, the dream of life experience is zero. Indifference and ignorance will come as a feeling in the human mediocre rate perception and you will sleep on you. To find yourself and to become what is needed and to dream a correct life you have to achieve three stages. The first stage is the “unaware learning” when you find information and make a living based on vibrational diet and meditation far away from distractions. This step helps you to believe in something and to have a meaning, a goal, a dream, a desire and you are preparing for the next stage which is stage two also called “sadness embracing”. The first stage gives you abundant information, the power you always needed to go on, but it has a dark side. Staying away from distractions and finding yourself can get you in a place with a lot of solitude whisper. So you will have information and you will know yourself well and you will walk the path, but a lot of change will be in the social zone. You see, when you go on this path you detach yourself from the ordinary beliefs and you create your own originals one. Once you grow people can’t stay by your side anymore, because you have to carry them with you and you can’t, because it’s a lot of pressure on your hands so if they don’t climb the path you have to let them go. In conclusion negative emotions will appear, but that doesn’t mean you have to stop and this is the signal that says you have to go on. I know it hurts to climb, but if you want to see the world from a top view you have to do it. Learn stage two and learn to “embrace sadness” in a positive way. The last stage is the achievement state which is the final destination to your goals and is the top view and the breathtaking point. This is where you look down and you see hell and you look up and see nothing. You achieved you and you achieved greatness. You look forward and you can see why it was a 1,000,000 miles road to wishes. The view is splendid and it’s all yours and nobody can take it so congratulation you are different now and you can’t go back. You better used to the fact that you become what is normal and you achieved the Medal of Honor in the dream of life experience. With this thought in your belief system life will unfold in front of you and things will fall in the right place. It was no moonlight walking, but you made it so I guess it was a victory, an act of grace made from fair play.

ALSPEL 1:72. The body is a big receiver and the normal rate perception is the place when the creation is produced and the solution is subliminal created for your need that was placed in the mediocre rate perception. The mediocre rate perception is a crowded place and you don’t have to give it a special attention. The mediocre rate perception is connected with the normal rate perception; this way is important to have a clean perception, without distractions so you can see the correct information that is needed for your experience. The bridge between the two perceptions has to exist permanent and there can’t be one without the other. Give yourself the permission to live a super adventure identical with the one from your dreams.

ALSPEL 1:73. The human can see thru the normality of the dream of life experience by using the connection within the source; the expression of the body. The human can see what it is and what is happening and self-confidence and faith is misunderstood. When you want to materialize something you don't have to rely on a thought, belief or a supreme manifestation. We are so ambitious that we don't need a supreme manifestation to believe in us; we just need ourselves to believe in; the only one you have to rely on is you. Search the truth or the answers in you and by doing this you achieve 101 percent self-confidence. The 101 percent self-confidence is when you feel like a supreme manifestation and faith is the awareness of the power that is in you. It is the belief that you can make anything happen, but first you have to know that everything is possible and you have to know that nothing matters and nothing is forever and the material projections is false. It is not a reality like most of the people perceive, in fact it is only a dream. By achieving this belief that everything is connected with everything and the world that you see outside is inside you and that you are the expression of the reality that is projected and what you see is not real you become aware of the things that you can do and you start to control the outside reality. You can't lie to your belief system. If you don't believe it you don't believe in you and it can't manifest and this is fact. On the other side people try this system and then they want to change a belief and it is not working. They push a lot of resistance thru it and it doesn't manifest and it doesn't change. Try not to become or to think of it as something good or bad. Accept yourself the way you are today and then start to change tomorrow and start to use the system and try to integrate it to your natural self. Forget about rules and conditions. The world is yours and dreams have to be projected in your reality once you are aware of the system and you decide that the time is now. The intention is a very powerful weapon and it changes in the internal body the chemical reaction to stress or happiness and also it can give you the necessary power to start the expression of you and to come out of the comfort zone. It can give you the maximum chemical reaction and the arsenal you hope for. There is no pill that can make you a supreme manifestation, you are who you are and who you want to be and if you accept the system you can play with it and become what is necessary at any time in any parameters and the dream of life experience falls down in front of you.

ALSPEL 1:74. We forgot that we are here to experience and without awareness we tend to respect a forced mentality in a free program. We tend to respect laws in a world made from mediocrity, a world that we chose from infinite possibilities. We are beautiful people, we chose our body and the time and space that we experience, but it doesn't matter that much. The feeling of gratitude and peace are much better than big successes. We are dreams that manifest in a reality that is meant to be experienced thru senses in a material form. A world based on a strange factor which is present time and the right path in the right time is expressed thru repeating numbers. A world between hell and heaven is a mediocre world, a mediocre experience, but suitable for experience.

ALSPEL 1:75. The human weakness is created by living with rules and becoming a fake human. We are not in the natural flow like the wind in non-resistance and we forgotten who we are. In order to proceed we don't need anything and we can start from where we are. When we are on the right path we become powerful and we are in a state of happiness, a state of challenge, a mission. The good part is that happiness is a feeling that can be created in the mind without too much effort and without any help from the material things. It is very important to find happiness without help from the exterior and to create it in the interior thru emotions and beliefs and detachment is ultimate intelligence.

ASLPEL 1:76. When you search for a supreme manifestation you actually search for yourself. You are a supreme manifestation when you see the world as it is and accept it; you are who you are and you have to stay focused near the normal rate perception rather than the mediocre rate perception, you are aware of what is happening, but still give time to experience the dream of life experience thru the mediocre rate perception. You live in the present moment and you move on with the secure feeling that inside you, the abundant Universe is expressed and outside this secure place nothing is bigger. The best emotion in the world is to experience dreams as a form of passion, a form of curiosity in the dream of life experience. If you put your mind to it the impossible can become possible and the reality can have a sense of irony; the mediocre rate perception which is the used perception in the dream of life experience can make you focus on the expression of the material and you can't see the manifestation, but the impossible is possible in the dream of life experience and what you visualize, desire or dream can be manifested; bend yourself to the reality that you always dreamed of and learn to be aware of who you are and what can you dream.

ALSPEL 1:77. When you visualize the event with your perception you disconnect from the dream of life experience. When you close your eyes you access the constructor. You enter the constructor and you allow the plan to be received and to use it in the dream of life experience. You will receive it and it will appear suddenly in the mediocre rate perception. Sometimes your feelings can be toxic and it is important to fix the mediocre rate perception and to change it to a healthy perception thru meditation and raw diet. It can be done just for initiation and if not pleased the meditation should not be continued. You are prepared when you feel it and the last step is detachment.

ALSPEL 1:78.If you don't know how it feels and you tried everything just let it go and let things settle alone. You don't have to believe in a supreme manifestation or in the Universe that will deliver the plans and manifest your desires. You are the Universe and you are a supreme manifestation. Receive your recognition for your creation and for your natural self. Find your love and be the best at it and leave something behind; leave your original mark. Leave your mark for creation in the dream of life experience. Destroy the man in the mirror and become what you believe is worthy for you. I repeat, nothing is real and the purpose of the dream of life experience is to find your true nature and to become something that is aware. This is a demonstration of self-confidence and there is no more than one universal dimension and that is perception. The dream of life experience is a representation of our desires and true nature and the mediocrity is here for real sensations.

ALSPEL 1:79. A death point is part of the normality of the program, an experience and the transition between two dreams of life. By our thoughts and by our actions in the past experience we receive and accept a New Universal Experience that is created from the last experience. The dream of life experience is created by multiple expressions of people and multiple expressions people created this type of world made from mediocrity so we can experience the present moment. We live in our perception and this is happy birthday; we are here for a reason and that is experience. Experience is expressed thru good or bad, pain and security. We can reach different security points thru emotions like compassion that is created from actions and this is salvation. A security point is a state in the dream of life experience when you work to achieve your best reflection thru clean actions to help others and that gives you emotional feedback as a reward.

ALSPEL 1:80.The key for achieving and changing is inside your belief system and you have to begin from there. The difference between want and desire is in your heart; if is not necessary and does not serve your true nature your body can't understand why you desire it and it doesn't begin the process of achieving. The people from the dream of life experience use each other to evolve and this is the normal process of movement. We evolve on others back and right after the information from the new is assimilated our normal rate perception starts searching for the next stage of movement. Nobody teaches us to dream or to dare to dream big and nobody teaches us to believe in us and we grow alone thru pain. In order to make it we have to work a little bit and accept the normality of the material and the normality of the dream of life movement. The need is comfort, but the abundance is not; don't forget that material need to please your personality, but you are the supreme expression of the abundance.

ALSPEL 1:81.The true nature can be decoded and you can search the things that you feel something about it and could be people, emotions, thought and beliefs. There is where you have to search for more and that is the path you have to take in order to find your love. I've seen humanity driven by negative emotions thru fear and I've seen faith lost and with this I do not refer to any supreme representation or any religion. Faith is misinterpreted thru religion and religions are created from diabolic fairytales which make the human to live in fear and to accept a creator and to put faith in it. The human is the one creator and he doesn't need a belief created by fear in front of no supreme entity. A lot of misunderstood information is here and to be is the single truth.

ALSPEL 1:82.To let go is more than just an awareness process; is a detachment thought created from knowing why you let go and why you are doing this and to be detached comes from a state of awareness. It is not necessary to let go and it is important to make your move and to extract that originality from inside and express it in a material form. Work and polish that original expression as much as you can and don't try to express something else or somebody else. Do what is reasonable for your thoughts and beliefs and put it out and see what is coming. In a world that is an expression of our beliefs and emotions it is important to be happy and with this I refer to be aware of what happiness means for you and what you can do in the dream of life experience. At the end of the day if you are relaxed and get a good sleep that is the ultimate success.

ALPEL 1:83.In the dream of life experience to win is not important, success is not important and it takes a lot of negative effort to get there and in the end it's not worth it and it doesn't matter. Stop worshipping people that you see on screens or pictures, people that are presented to you like supreme humans that did something special and they are successful. What about you? Do you know who you are? Do you sleep well? Do you know for what you are here? Do you know where you come from? I am asking you if you know what are you and what is that you experience? Do you know that is nothing greater than you? That you are the machine that keeps the world spinning around? Misunderstood perception is the cause of unclear path and this means to unplug mentally from distractions. I believe that you are what you see and people tell you different stories so you can believe and to get you on the wrong track lying to you that this information will change your life, because they think that they know the answer. Put yourself a big question and ask everything you see. Get out of the comfort zone from your mind. If you are not in contact with your natural self, then find your love thru the 101 meditation which is a meditation technique in contact with salt water. This is your dream so stop being so ignorant with you. We are here to experience a universal playground and action is the key. The material doesn't matter and is a creation of our commune desire. I don't understand material, because everybody is here for a limited experience. The Earth is created by us and there are a lot of universal playgrounds to experience. Nothing matters, but our time and experience. All that you believe, see or think doesn't matter. What matters is to pursue your dreams and that is the only target. We are born and people tell us that this is life and it's very real and when you materialize a dream you feel like a supreme manifestation. This is a part of the experience that we coexist. It's all about the feeling created by experience that makes you a supreme manifestation and not the possessions. Get what you deserve and get your instructions for life. Activate the power thru perception from your mind. It's all a dream and it's so normal to materialize a dream; normal as it seems. Believe in you, because this the ultimate respect for you and the best thing to do. This is the biggest mission of all time; to believe that you are here exactly as you dream of it. When you are awake and you know you who are and know what is happening you are in a non-resistance and non-desire. You are here and you live the moment, smell the fresh air and it's like being in love; you just feel abundance in every moment.

ALSPEL 1:84. A big part of the normality of the dream of life experience is the way civilization is not that evolved so we can experience this type of mediocrity in this type of experience. The difference between old civilization and the present one is also a part of the normality of the dream of life experience and has to do with the normal movement of life. Human are here on a playground for experience and we aren't a supreme civilization as we seen in the past. In 2017 in the dream of life experience humans don't need a supreme intelligence, because this is not the point of experience; our necessity is created in a way that it needs actions to manifest and this is mediocre and a part of the normality in the experience that we coexist.

ALSPEL 1:85. When you grow you fall down several times so you can see the right path and it is much better to fall down rather than to remain in the same experience. People fall down and don't receive what they deserve, because they are not aware of the experience that it's projected from inside; they are not aware of the beliefs and emotions that creates or modify the experience. The human is the only one responsible for the experience that is projected outside; without this awareness people tend to blame others for the experience and sometimes the dream of life experience may seem like a nightmare. I wonder who we are as civilization with people praying for minimum amounts and keeping hold of the negative experiences. The need is materialize when is attached to a feeling of needing and the emotional system gives a feedback like pleasure which is a feeling of normality, a feeling of coming or a feeling that is already here and it is done.

ALSPEL 1:86. The dream of life experience feels real, but it is not and the playground that we call life is a reproduction of our commune perception. The game that we coexist is the type of game which works by the rule "search and find" and it's supposed to be like this to be palpable and to express a normality in such a way that we can experience everything that we want thru senses. In the dream of life experience is perfect to imagine and see how things work and experience them in a material projection. Why is necessary to live and meditate with no distractions? Why is necessary to be like a supreme manifestation? Why is necessary to exist a supreme manifestation for you to be led by it? Why is necessary to live in poverty and to belief in a supreme manifestation that can improve your life? Why don't you believe in you and become an expression of a supreme manifestation and do what you want in the dream of life experience for your own pleasure. Why don't you do it yourself and find your own answers and believe in your intuition, rather than a supreme manifestation. It's much better how the dream of life experience is created thru difference and from mediocrity, because we lose our memory and land in the dream of life experience with free choice to experience, but until we get there we have to be aware of the space that we coexist and the emotions and thoughts that we have. It's a part of the normality of the program to make it so real and we find good and bad emotions, but also combined and the experience has multiple parameters that are perfect sculpted so the experience can be a pleasant experience.

ALSPEL 1:87. A New Universal Experience campus has to be created in order to achieve best reflection. The campus exists thru rules with no processed drinks and foods and is self-financed and maintained by project NUE. The campus promotes high vibrational food and raw diet, organic greenhouses, pure water from silver bypass, reduction of meat, schools that promote creation rather than incorrect system based on diversity and no religion. Organic energy regeneration is a part of the NUE campus which produced free energy from sun, water, wind and Earth. New project houses are made from glass and rock; fire for daily usage is made from free electricity and the food it's cooked on hot rock in the ground. The amount of meat per week is reduced and usually from fresh fish. Playgrounds for kids are created in nature, without electric devices. Campus is based on rules with no government impact and it's protected by an electric wall that surrounds the campus thru electric towers. Electric cars and transport are only available. The facility has his own domain which is dot NUE and on this platform you can find information about food, health and creation. People can access this campus, but are subject to terms; a 3 week test based on creation, eating habits, desires and non-religion. The New Universal Experience campus is run by the BBAIIC ALSPEL.

ALSPEL 1:88. A negative vice program can be deleted thru high vibration green diet like wheat grass, Spirulina and chlorella, ashwagandha and siberian ginseng. It can help you to avoid the trap of the mediocre rate perception with the wrong path; delusions, incompatibility, negative emotional system, obsessions and can keep you on track by following the normal rate perception with the right path; calibration, inner-connection, raw diet, present moment, normal emotional system, normal belief system, awareness, patience and persistence. You have to do something that shifts your entire life and the safe way to change is thru heartbreaks. The location where you are born or where you grow is very important, because that is the starting point and there is all that is needed. There is no need to search it somewhere else.

ALSPEL 1:89. Life is a deluding process. When you are young people lie to you about life and try to keep you in a secure place and you believe what is presented to you; they are showing proof of a safe environment. In reality this is a part of the deluding process that we all are in. When you find this truth it's no turning back. The attraction program that is presented in the world as the law of attraction is a deluding program; you attract what you think and that it's incorrect. I don't believe in the law of attraction, because the creation process is based on emotions and beliefs. The belief system is a normal function. You don't need to search that much and you don't need to push a lot of resistance to change some values in it, because it have to be normal to believe in what makes you normal. The feeling of a correct belief feels like a fresh graduate teenager and it's a feeling so strong of happiness, synchronization and awareness. The rest is zero and has no sense.

ALSPEL 1:90. In the dream of life experience we don't need to take life too serious and we don't need to compromise for nothing or no one. We don't have to put too much value on things and we have to try to be more permissive with life and more flexible about the bad. This world can't be commanded and controlled and the government can make changes, but the last choice is on you. That is the desire of the government so let it be the way they feel about laws for the world they see. It is worthless to reject the construction of this world, but rather try to work it out the way it is from where you are. Try to shape the world that you see from your beliefs and emotions and the experience will change dramatic as your beliefs and emotions. The relationship between you and the dream of life experience has to be flexible in a way that you don't have to take life too serious and the "feeling of grateful" has to be present in a way that you are here for a trip, because you chose to experience and you deserve it.

ALSPEL 1:91. If my country Romania wasn't like this it would lose her freedom and it doesn't worth it. People from here are rebels and want freedom over power and material possessions so the government has a big problem with controlling the population from Romania. They put a lot of taxes and let things unfinished and they try with this mentality to keep the control of the population from our country down with negative beliefs. This is how things work here and this is a part of the normality of the dream of life experience from Romania. In another country things are a lot worse or a lot better and it depends on each individual how he makes his life. The parameters of the program have to be accepted by all the people and are a part of the normality. Search for something that is strange or supernatural and you will find nothing in a world that is based on normality. Search outside the program which is planet Earth and you will find nothing. The program that rules the normality of the dream of life experience doesn't matter. All that you want or dream is already here and you don't have to search for nothing. You just have to be aware of what is happening and you have to accept instructions for life if you want to know how the experience works. Happiness is just a dream and what does a superhero wants? To be human and to experience an experience that is so real and so normal and so mediocre. Without mediocrity experience can't exist and the stars are here for you to look at them and wonder about life and what it is. Stars, the infinite Universe and the planets are actually hints for you to be aware of the program that we all coexist. It puts you in the position to ask yourself about what is happening and what is life; nothing has a meaning unless we give it.

ALSPEL 1:92. Love is a feeling of the dream of life experience. Without feedback or feelings the experience that we all coexist can't happen. Without feelings you can't be aware and life has no meaning. We all follow the same purpose and that is the feeling of experience that is part of the normality of the dream of life experience. Love is a misunderstood emotion and the word love is attached to a feeling that is created from awareness and love has foundation in freedom. If you love somebody you have to let them go. The real one to love is you. The attention to another human is given by you to them as an appreciation of their acceptance, presence and care for you. There is no need to give each other the air that you breathe in order to be in love. Love is a security emotion and humans need needs. The dream of life experience is abundant, but the abundance for the human mediocre rate perception means experience based on needs. The feeling of abundance can't stay in strong statements about you in order to change a belief system to have abundance, but abundance stays in the human perception. Some humans may see abundance in little things other in big things and that is also a part of the normality of the program. Abundance is not needed in a physical world. The dream of life experience doesn't require abundance in material, but experience in living the present. Being simple is necessary and it's a confliction between the world that it is and the simplicity of the experience.

ALSPEL 1:93. If you want something, if you have that dream you have to do something and this has to be very clear. The desire is without a sense and don't serve the human true purpose which is experience. The desire of possessing is a program of the normality of the experience. If you want something you have to possess it as a part of the normality, but you also have to let it go. The dream of life experience is a non-sense experience. We are universal and we are nobody and we are not attached by anything. We chose a destiny that has to be fulfilled and our beliefs are printed in us when we grow from our family, school and city that we chose to live in. The beliefs redirect you to accomplish your true purpose which is an experience of being something or somebody. There is no meaning in living in a free world in a comfort zone. Life is more complex and created on deeper parameters.

ALSPEL 1:94. The dream of life experience is a cube, a playground, a scene where the experience is presented as a box dominated by laws for the "feeling of real" and to experience the need to be somebody. Struggle is necessary for evolution, not because that is how things work, but to put you aside so you can ask why and shift your beliefs and be aware of what is happening. A light doesn't need light to shine it needs darkness. I can tell you that the best detox is into positive emotions which are in you. I don't believe in dimensions, because the dream of life program runs in a cube as a form of life, a form of movement that it just exists and it has to be this way to get you to feel normal. The normality of working and getting a form of compensation is normal.

ALSPEL 1:95.If we are infinite consciousness we have to be like a supreme manifestation like God omnipresent and it's not the case in the dream of life experience. The dream of life experience is just for experience and nothing is that serious and nothing is that real. It's just a manifestation or expression of the same creation, but in different forms. What you see in the world is a reflection of how you are as a parameter in the program, a reflection of you in the dream of life experience. All that it is possible is in front of you and there are no secrets. There is no detach between physic and something spiritual and the expression of the human is in one form. There are no answers to find and it's all a unity. Dimensions don't exist and the expression of the dream of life experience is represented by a form of life in a cube a form of movement and it has to be this way as a part of the program normality. To be illuminated isn't a part of the normality of the program and it's not the case in the dream of life experience. We don't need illumination, we need instructions for life. To be perfect isn't a part of the normality of the dream of life experience and has more to do with obsessions.

ALSPEL 1:96.A New Universal Social Media is necessary for expressing our true self online. The profile has to be constructed by writing down who you are and what you do in the dream of life experience. The process is more complex, because you have to write who you are and what are your feelings about the experience that we live in and also who or what is necessary to become. In this way the profile has a more complex representation of who you are and want to become and it's more important to be this way so people can see this information rather than hang out. The profile section of who you are is constructed automatically by the system based on questions for defining personality, childhood, actions from the past, city where you grew up, experience that affected the person you are today. The real "About you" is based on answers that defines who you are.

ALSPEL 1:97.The thought that everything is moving and passing and nothing is under my possession is detaching me and it gives me a liberty state. You are living, but you don't know how it is. Look, your time is limited and don't lose your experience in the dream of life experience searching for treasure. Appreciate who you are today and what you came with; the body, parents, time and space, city that you grew up and the real values that matters. Like all the best programs of experience they are abused and that is a part of the normality. The experience that we live in is abused by people for consuming and that is normal. The experience will go away one day and all will be over just like sand and dust. There will be no material and a new program will be born for experience just like the dream of life experience. We are living now so make the best of this precious experience. The child in you will know the path.

ALSPEL 1:98. It is good to know yourself and to be you and to make things a reality, but try to do what you believe you can do and don't try to become something that you are not. Don't chase big dreams that take too long to materialize, but try to be here in the present as a part of the experience with all that is happening. Childhood is the most abundant period of the experience, because it is near materialization and you are more near the truth than material and you are more near the normal rate mind. Most of the people are 10–30 percent more abundant than their needs, but after this percent you have to take it to another level of perception and understanding so you can have and experience more. 30 percent means a lot. For you to be possible to experience over 30 percent of abundance you have to change a lot and to stay all the time in the normal high vibrational state that is required over 30 percent. If you can't see it visualizing, if you can't experience over 30 percent with all that you have you can't acquire more. Once you stay over that level your thoughts, beliefs and emotions change so you are connected with all that is you and the boy is healing itself at that abundance. Some people just don't understand the concept of the normal functionality of the dream of life experience.

ALSPEL 1:99. The concept of visualizing and materializing is wrong, because it can put you in place when you just wait for things to happen. Visualizing is great and I am a dreamer and I practice it all the time, but without actions in the dream of life experience you can become a free dreamer. Rather than wishing or visualizing an experience with material or non-material things, you may want to action right now in the present moment. If you believe that you can stay all day and dream and somehow something will get to you that experience it's alright, but it is more complex and more natural in the dream of life experience to manifest thru actions. Rather than waiting or visualizing you can start actions like "I want to write a book and I will begin to write it down now. I will try to manifest in a material form my originality and I will present it as a book. Then I will find a place where to put it so people can see it and I will work with what I have right now. The concept of materializing works in any circumstances and has roots in the belief system. If you think that life is good for you and you can stay all day in bed visualizing and somehow you will manifest it's alright, but for an experience that is made from mediocrity you can take actions right now and start manifesting and start accepting that is already done.
